Begin at Raj Ghat, the serene memorial marking the site where Mahatma Gandhi was cremated. Your exploration continues with a drive past the imposing Red Fort, the sandstone masterpiece of Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan, and Jama Masjid. As one of the largest mosques in India, Jama Masjid features three grand gateways and two soaring minarets constructed of alternating vertical strips of red sandstone and white marble.

You will also visit the Laxmi Narayan Temple, an ornate structure dedicated to Lakshmi, the goddess of prosperity and good fortune.

In New Delhi, stand before the 42-metre-high India Gate. This 'Stone of Triumph' serves as a national war memorial, honouring the 85,000 Indian Army soldiers who lost their lives during the campaigns of World War I. Your tour concludes with a drive past Rashtrapati Bhawan, the palatial official residence of the President of India, renowned for its unique architectural blend of Mughal and Western styles. The remainder of the afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure, or you may choose to participate in one of the available optional activities.

The Itinerary

Lodhi Art District was created by renowned artists from across the globe. Colourful murals were painted across the walls of one of the last housing estates built by the British, and the funky art shares an important message on issues such as climate and marginalised communities. Continue on foot to the India Habitat Centre and admire its unique architecture, with its covered walkways and changing exhibits. Stroll a little further to Lodhi Gardens, one of the city's green spaces, filled with 15th-century monuments and tombs from the Lodhi Dynasty and a favourite place for politicians and Delhiites to come and relax or exercise. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Optional Activity: Delhi Temples by Metro Train

Join your guide as you dive into the energy of modern Delhi by travelling like a local on the efficient Delhi Metro system. This is a fantastic way to witness the rhythm of daily life in India's capital. Your journey will take you to two profoundly spiritual and architecturally stunning sites.

In the afternoon, depart for Jaipur, the picturesque capital of Rajasthan. Known globally as the 'Pink City', Jaipur is colour-washed in the hue traditionally associated with hospitality in Rajput culture. Along with Agra and Delhi, this beautiful city forms the final point of India's famed Golden Triangle.

Jaipur is a destination where royalty still resides in grand palaces and where the ancient tradition of treating guests as gods remains a way of life. The city offers a timeless appeal, from its sprawling, beautifully laid-out gardens and parks to its marvellous heritage hotels that once served as the private residences of Maharajas. Spend time admiring the attractive monuments and the vibrant atmosphere created by ambling camels and locals dressed in multi-hued costumes.

In the evening, enjoy a rickshaw ride through the bustling market streets of Jaipur, where the colourful bazaars offer a treasure trove of Rajasthani handlooms and trinkets. You will also be treated to a traditional sari and Indian costume demonstration, showcasing the intricate styles of the region.

Day 5 Holi in Jaipur

After breakfast, immerse yourself in the vibrant spirit of Holi, the ancient 'Festival of Colours'. One of the most iconic and beloved celebrations in India, Holi was originally known as 'Holika' and finds its roots in early religious texts such as the Purvamimamsa-Sutras. This legendary festival predates the common era by several centuries, with historians noting its early popularity among the Aryan people, particularly across Eastern India.

While its meaning has evolved over the millennia, Holi remains a profound celebration of renewal and joy. In ancient times, it was observed as a sacred rite performed by married women to ensure the happiness and well-being of their families, centred around the worship of the full moon. Today, the festival transforms the streets of Jaipur into a kaleidoscopic masterpiece. Join the celebrations as the air fills with coloured powders and the spirit of togetherness, marking a truly once-in-a-lifetime cultural immersion in the heart of the Pink City.

Overnight: Standard or Premium Accommodation, Jaipur

The Itinerary

Set against the shimmering Maota Lake, the fort's reflection creates a dreamlike illusion that has captivated travellers for centuries. Explore its opulent courtyards and intricate carvings before visiting the Anokhi Museum, dedicated to the traditional Rajasthani art of hand-block printing.

Your exploration of the Pink City continues with a visit to the iconic Hawa Mahal, or the 'Palace of Winds'. This extraordinary five-story facade, featuring 953 small windows (jharokhas), was originally constructed to allow royal ladies to observe the vibrant street processions below while remaining unseen. Day 8 Agra

Experience the ethereal beauty of the Taj Mahal with two flexible morning options: an early sunrise visit at approximately 06:00 to witness the soft morning light hit the marble, or a post-breakfast visit at 09:00. This world-renowned monument is a pinnacle of Mughal architecture, expanding on Persian design traditions with its signature white marble inlaid with delicate semi-precious stones. Commissioned in 1631 by Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife, Mumtaz Mahal, the principal mausoleum was completed in 1643, with the surrounding lush gardens and auxiliary buildings finished shortly thereafter. Your tour includes entry to the breathtaking central mausoleum.

Later, explore the formidable Agra Fort, also known as the Red Fort. This UNESCO World Heritage site is a fascinating complex that showcases a high level of ornamentation and a unique "Shahjahani" style, a masterful blend of Persian, European, and Indian artistic influences. Rich in form, expression, and colour, the fort's innovative architecture and garden designs significantly influenced later structures in Delhi. Interestingly, history suggests the legendary Kohinoor diamond was once part of the fort's opulent furnishings.

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

We do not arrange seat selection. It is essential to highlight that some airlines do not allow pre-selected seats. We strongly suggest you contact the airline directly with seating allocation requirements and/or arrive at the airport earlier to arrange your seating. While we do not add frequent flyer member details to bookings, you can do this directly with the airline once you have your flight information.

Dietary Requests

Meal options and availability differ between airlines and routes therefore not all dietary requests can be accommodated. If your flight includes meals we will select the most suitable option available based on the dietary requirements you have specified. All meal requests are subject to airline approval and are not guaranteed, therefore we recommend preparing for your flight by bringing appropriate food for yourself, as required.

Fitness Level Required:

Adventure (and spontaneity) create some of the best travel memories. Bear in mind, your home schedules and timings might not be adhered to on tour - it's all part of the fun!
A relaxed level of fitness will be required. Expect a comfortable pace of touring with a focus on leisure time and gentle activity. This may include city tours, the ability to walk up and down small flights of stairs and gentle slopes. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance. Please note: Some areas may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or mobility scooters, with personal walking sticks and other aids required should they be needed. Although some assistance may be available, every traveller should be self-reliant during all aspects of their travel.

Please note: It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

India

A tourist visa for India is a strict requirement if travelling on an Australian or New Zealand passport. You will be able to start your visa application process once you receive your final travel documentation approximately 6 weeks prior to departure.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected.
