Day 15 Marmaris, Turkey
Arrive: 07:00 - Depart: 17:00

When you are cruising the Mediterranean with MSC Cruises it's easy to understand why Marmaris' history has been determined above all by its stunning setting, in a deep, fjord-like inlet surrounded by pine-cloaked hills.

The Itinerary

This did not seem to spur ancient Physcus, the original Dorian colony, to any growth or importance, but Süleyman comfortably assembled an army here in 1522, when launching its successful siege of Rhodes.

Shortly after this campaign Süleyman endowed the old town nucleus with the tiny castle and an inn. Little is left of the sleepy fishing village Marmaris used to be, a mere three decades ago. Development has dwarfed the old core of shops and lokantas lining narrow, bazaar-like streets, an intricate warren contrasting strongly with the European-style marina and waterfront. According to legend, Marmaris was named when Süleyman the Magnificent, not finding the castle here to his liking, was heard to mutter “Mimarı as” (“hang the architect”). The castle itself holds a museum of local finds and serves as a venue during the May festival.

Visit world-famous museums, such as the Capodimonte, with its collections of Baroque and Renaissance art, including works by Titian and Caravaggio. And then there’s the food, from Neapolitan pizza to fine dining. (charges may apply)

Better yet, combine your Naples cruise with an excursion to Pompeii, the archaeological site that lay buried for 1,700 years following the eruption of Vesuvius in 79 AD.Today, visitors can walk the cobbled streets and admire the mosaics adorning the villas of the town’s wealthiest families.

Ship: MSC Divina

(Itinerary 2 - 2027 Dates)

Inspired by the glamour of Sophia Loren, the MSC Divina is a Fantasia-class ship. While the MSC Seaview is all about modern, open-concept "beach condo" vibes, the Divina offers a more classic, elegant European cruise experience with its famous Swarovski crystal staircases and stone-paved piazza.

Dining

Dining on the MSC Divina is a blend of Mediterranean heritage and international favorites. The ship features two elegant main restaurants, The Black Crab and Villa Rossa, serving multi-course Italian and international menus. The Calumet and Manitou buffets provide casual dining with a wide variety of stations, including a popular authentic Italian pizzeria open late. Key dining highlights include Butcher's Cut (American steakhouse), Galaxy Kaito (sushi), and La Cantina di Bacco, which serves as both a wine bar and a pizzeria. Guests in the Yacht Club have exclusive access to Le Muse, an upscale, private restaurant offering "my choice" dining times and gourmet menus.

Entertainment

The Divina focuses on high-production value and classic nightlife. The Pantheon Theatre is a massive, Broadway-style venue hosting six different shows per cruise, ranging from acrobats to vocalists. The Casino Veneziano offers a glamorous setting with a full range of slots and table games, plus its own dedicated bar. Unlike the newer ships, the Divina features a 4D Cinema for immersive short films and a full-size Formula 1 Simulator. Catch up or lounge at numerous themed bars, including the Golden Jazz Bar and the Black and White Lounge, which hosts live music and themed dancing nights.

Activities

The Divina offers a mix of relaxation and high-energy sports. The ship boasts the Infinity Pool at the back of the ship, which blends into the horizon, and the Aqua Park main pool. For cooler days, Le Sirene has a sliding glass roof. The MSC Aurea Spa offers Balinese massages and a thermal suite. Unique to the Divina is Aqua Cycling, where you can take a spin class on bikes submerged in the pool. Want a more thorough workout? Visit the large fitness center with panoramic floor-to-ceiling windows, offering cardio and resistance machines alongside group classes. For over 18s, visit Top 18, an exclusive, adults-only sun deck for those looking for a quieter sanctuary away from the main pool areas.

The Kids' Club is a partnership with LEGO and Chicco, with the club space split into the Mini Club (3-6), Junior Club (7-11), Young Club (12-14), and Teens Club (15-17). TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction in which he or she is guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves the group at the end of the tour, they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides in each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village, and offer information on the place visited on the bus, however, they are not required to have specific knowledge on art, architecture, or history. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when particularly required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Visas

A tourist visa is not required for Europe for stays up to 90 days if travelling on an Australian passport.

EU Entry/Exit System (EES)

From October 12, 2025, a new European Entry System (EES) replaces the current manual passport-stamping process for non-EU travellers. Upon arrival in the Schengen area, Australian and New Zealand passport holders will have their fingerprints recorded and a photograph taken. Their entry and exit dates will be electronically registered. No previous action is required, but please be aware of longer wait times at border entry. From 10 April 2026, the EES will be fully operational at all external border crossing points of all the European countries (Schengen area) using the system.

European Travel Information & Authorisation System (ETIAS)

As an extension of the EES implementation introduced from 2025, ETIAS travel authorisation is a mandatory entry requirement for visa-exempt nationals travelling to any of these 30 European countries, including Australian and New Zealand citizens, that will be introduced in 2026. We advise you to monitor smartraveller.com.au closer to your departure to ensure you are up to date on the requirements at the time of entry.

Important:

Visa rules may have changed since Covid-19. Some countries and airlines may also require you to obtain an additional visa prior to arrival. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination you're entering.

Please note: Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.

It is also important to note that some areas of employment such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations may have additional restrictions in applying for Visas. This may in turn affect the type of application required.
