Day 9 Trek from Dingboche to Lobuche

From Dingboche, ascend the small ridge above the Pheriche valley. From the stupa at the top, Taweche and Cholatse (6440m) make for a pretty striking scene; they seem to lean forwards from across the valley in the west. To the north, Lobuje Peak (6119m) and the snowfields of the Cho La are the kings of the skyline. The walking will now be fairly flat on wide-open fields. Late in the morning you will cross the Khumbu Khola at Dughla and take a light lunch at the foot of the huge terminal moraines of the Khumbu Glacier flowing off Everest.

In the afternoon, there will be a solid and quite steep climb on a rocky trail to the top of the moraines. On the crest of the ridge, you'll pass a line of memorial cairns (stacks of stones), built in memory of the Sherpas and climbers who have died on various Everest expeditions over the last fifty or so years.

From here the view is downright spectacular once again, with Pumori (7145m), Lingtren (6697m), Khumbutse (6623m), and across the border in Tibet, Changtse (7550m) surrounding you. Then follow the valley stream to the lodge at Lobuche (4930m), arriving early afternoon.

Day 10 Trek from Lobuche to Everest Base Camp via Gorak Shep

The day you've been waiting for – the legendary Everest Base Camp.

From Lobuche, follow the broad valley that runs parallel to Khumbu Glacier. When you reach the moraines of Changri Nup Glacier, you will make a series of small ascents and descents over a rocky trail lined with cairns that eventually leads to the surprising glacial sands of Gorak Shep (5160m) – reached after about three hours of walking. Here you have lunch and leave all your belongings at the lodge where you'll stay tonight.

Now's the time to head to Everest Base Camp! The trek to base camp takes around three hours. From base camp you won't get views of Mount Everest, however, you will be able to see glaciers, caves, lakes and what's regarded as technically the most dangerous and hardest section to climb Everest, the Everest Ice Fall that flows from the Western Cwm.

Trek back to the lodge in Gorak Shep for an early night - tomorrow morning is one to remember.

The Itinerary

Itinerary 3 - Pokhara Extension Tour

Day 8 Rest day at Dingboche for acclimatisation

An important acclimatisation/rest day today with a casual walk where you will witness the breathtaking views of the North face of Ama Dablam and the Lhotse-Nuptse ridge as you explore this beautiful valley that leads up to Island Peak.

The walk is short with a good chance to relax in the afternoon.

Overnight: Mountain Lodge

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 9 Trek from Dingboche to Lobuche

From Dingboche, ascend the small ridge above the Pheriche valley. From the stupa at the top, Taweche and Cholatse (6440m) make for a pretty striking scene; they seem to lean forwards from across the valley in the west. To the north, Lobuje Peak (6119m) and the snowfields of the Cho La are the kings of the skyline.

The walking will now be fairly flat on wide-open fields. Late in the morning you will cross the Khumbu Khola at Dughla and take a light lunch at the foot of the huge terminal moraines of the Khumbu Glacier flowing off Everest.

In the afternoon, there will be a solid and quite steep climb on a rocky trail to the top of the moraines. On the crest of the ridge, you'll pass a line of memorial cairns (stacks of stones), built in memory of the Sherpas and climbers who have died on various Everest expeditions over the last fifty or so years.

From here the view is downright spectacular once again, with Pumori (7145m), Lingtren (6697m), Khumbutse (6623m), and across the border in Tibet, Changtse (7550m) surrounding you. Then follow the valley stream to the lodge at Lobuche (4930m), arriving early afternoon.

The approx. hiking time today is 5 hours.

Overnight: Mountain Lodge

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 10 Trek from Lobuche to Everest Base Camp via Gorak Shep

The day you've been waiting for – the legendary Everest Base Camp.

From Lobuche, follow the broad valley that runs parallel to Khumbu Glacier. When you reach the moraines of Changri Nup Glacier, you will make a series of small ascents and descents over a rocky trail lined with cairns that eventually leads to the surprising glacial sands of Gorak Shep (5160m) – reached after about three hours of walking. Here you have lunch and leave all your belongings at the lodge where you'll stay tonight.

Now's the time to head to Everest Base Camp! The trek to base camp takes around three hours. From base camp you won't get views of Mount Everest, however, you will be able to see glaciers, caves, lakes and what's regarded as technically the most dangerous and hardest section to climb Everest, the Everest Ice Fall that flows from the Western Cwm.

Trek back to the lodge in Gorak Shep for an early night - tomorrow morning is one to remember.

Day 11 Trek from Gorak Shep to Kala Patthar to Pheriche

Rise early this morning to avoid the morning clouds as we climb to Kala Patthar peak (5545m.) to witness the best views of Everest. These panoramic views of Mount Everest at sunrise are truly incredible. You will also be able to see a number of iconic Himalayan mountain peaks like Mount Pumori, Mount Lingtren, Mount Khumbetse, Mount Nuptse, Mount Lhotse, Mount Ama Dablam, Mount Thamserku and many more.

The ascent is quite steep, so start very slowly and try to ascend at a steady rhythmic pace. Kala Patar is the rocky hilltop below Pumori. It's a tough walk because of the altitude, but the view from the top will surpass your wildest imagination.

Hike back around one hour to Gorak Shep to enjoy breakfast, pack your bags and set off to Lobuche and Thugla, where you will stop for lunch.

Then you'll cross the Khumbu Khola and head down the valley below Cholatse to Pheriche (4243m), where you will stop for the night. Today is a tough walking day however it's all downhill from here.

The approx. hiking time today is 7 hours.

Day 12 Trek from Pheriche to Namche Bazaar

After having breakfast at the lodge, start trekking back towards Namche Bazaar (3441m).

Today's trekking is at an easier descent passing through Rhododendron Forest before reaching Tengboche for lunch.

Tengboche is a small village with a famous monastery offering you the splendid view of Ama Dablam, green hills and river views.

After lunch trek back to Namche to spend the night at the lodge.

The approx hiking time today is 7 hours.

Overnight: Mountain Lodge

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 13 Trek from Namche Bazaar to Lukla

Leaving Namche, descend through the forest towards the Dudh Kosi for our last day of the trek, and continue the return journey re-crossing the river a number of times.

Retracing your steps along the valley, pass through a variety of settlements and forests before a gentle 45-minute climb to Lukla (2886m). Savour the final mountain sunset of the trek as you complete this exhilarating journey of the highest mountain range in the world.

Tonight is a great chance to enjoy a few celebratory drinks with the rest of the crew before flying back to Kathmandu in the morning.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Nepal

The best time to visit Nepal is during Spring and Autumn, however, Nepal can be visited the whole year round. There is no seasonal constraint on traveling in and through Nepal. Even in December and January, when winter is at its severest, there are compensating bright sun and brilliant views.

Gratuities (tips) are not included in the tour price for services of the tour/trek leader (when available), driver and porters throughout the tour. The recommended tip is $15 per person for the guided city tour which is split between the guide and driver. The recommended tip for the trek is $15 per person per day for each day on the trek. This will amount to a total of AUD$180 per person for the trek which will cover your guides and porters.

Please note: Tipping for services provided is always a matter of personal discretion; however, please be aware that many locals consider tipping part of their normal remuneration, and they may approach you for payment; there's no need to be intimidated by the request.

Sightseeing

Please note: If the entrance to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts. Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

A Tourist visa for Nepal is required if travelling on an Australian Passport. This can be arranged on arrival for approximately USD$50, valid for 30 days. Visas must be arranged in USD currency at the border with 2 passport sized photos.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules may have changed since Covid-19. Some countries and airlines may require you to obtain an additional visa before arrival. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination you're entering.

Please note:

- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for Visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Supplier Fees

In the event the Travel Offer you have purchased is unable to proceed, and/or a travel Supplier is unable to fulfil the Travel Offer due to external circumstances (Limitation of Liability e.g. a Force Majeure event), there may be a fee or amount of money that is withheld by our Suppliers and is unrecoverable. This may be due to non-refundable airline tickets, cancellation penalties with cruise cabins or unrecoverable payments with our land/accommodation partners. TripADeal has committed to these costs as your Agent and will endeavour to recover all funds committed and/or paid for your Travel Offer, but this may not be possible in all circumstances. If refunds are unavailable from Suppliers, we will endeavour to obtain a travel credit on the best terms available and communicate these outcomes to you. If TripADeal cannot obtain a refund or travel service credit, or part thereof, this cost is passed on to the customer as a Supplier Fee. This fee is not revenue-raising and is paid to or withheld by our suppliers when recovering payments.
