13-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | INCA TRAIL ADVENTURE

The Itinerary

Itinerary 1

Day 1 Australia (or New Zealand) - Lima, Peru

Today depart Australia (or New Zealand) for Lima, Peru. Upon arrival into Lima, a representative will be waiting to transfer you to the hotel, and afterwards enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. Lima is a huge and fascinating city, a melting pot of all things Peruvian where world-famous restaurants sit alongside ancient archaeological sites. Known as The City of Kings, the Peruvian capital is packed with stunning colonial architecture, huge religious buildings, the seat of government, and other important structures. Please note: Due to flight scheduling and availability, some departures may occur on Day 0. Affected customers must be at the airport the night before. Flight times will be indicated on your final documentation that you will receive prior to departure.

Overnight: Jose Antonio Hotel or similar, Lima

Meals included: In-Flight

Day 2 Lima City Tour

After breakfast enjoy a guided city tour visiting key sites of Lima. First up, see Huaca Pucllana (entrance fee not included), a huge archaeological site in Miraflores, one of Lima's most popular districts. Huaca Pucllana was an important ceremonial, cultural and administrative centre that developed in this part of the Peruvian coast between 200 AD and 700 AD. This impressive sacred place is built from seven stepped platforms surrounded by a plaza and large walls and certainly not what you'd expect to find in lively Miraflores! Next, drive to a designated UNESCO World Heritage site, the historic centre of Lima. See Lima's main square, the beautiful Plaza de Armas, surrounded by impressive colonial and Republican-era buildings including the Government Palace, the Cathedral of Lima, the Archbishop's Palace of Lima, the Municipal Palace and the Palace of the Union. Afterwards it's on to Casa Aliaga, the oldest colonial mansion in Lima and one of the oldest in South America. Few houses in the world have been occupied by the same family for so long, here, the Aliaga family have lived in the mansion since 1535. This fascinating house represents the vivid passage of time showcasing an authentic history. After returning to your hotel enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure.

Overnight: Jose Antonio Hotel or similar, Lima

Day 3 Lima - Cusco

Today at the appropriate time be transferred to the airport for the flight to Cusco, where you'll be met by the guide to check in to the hotel. Nestled amidst the Andes, Cusco stands as a living testament to the Inca civilization's brilliance. Take your time wandering along cobblestone streets that wind through awe-inspiring archaeological sites. Feel the heartbeat of this vibrant city as colourful markets burst with traditional textiles, crafts, and local flavours.

Overnight: Costa del Sol Ramada Cusco or similar, Cusco

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Cusco City Tour

Today you will enjoy a guided tour of beautiful Cusco. First head to the wonderful Koricancha, next door to Santo Domingo Church. The Koricancha was the most sacred and important temple in the Incan Empire. Its walls were once covered with gold, with life-size solid gold and silver statues of plants and animals, which sadly, was stripped out by the Spanish conquistadors. Next head to the Cusco Cathedral, located on the Plaza de Armas. Built between 1560 and 1654 on top of the foundations of an existing Incan temple, this spectacular cathedral houses many works of art by the Cusco School of painters, and its main altar and pulpit are covered in gold and silver relief work. The next stop is the imposing Incan fortress of Sacsayhuaman, sitting high on a hill above Cusco. Here you'll see some of the finest examples of Incan stonework and construction, including massive rocks that were carefully cut and perfectly fitted together to form the impressive walls. Enjoy beautiful panoramic views of Cusco and after exploring Sacsayhuaman, head up the hill to the Tambomachay Archeological Complex. The exact purpose of this site is unknown, but it may have functioned, at least in part, as an Inca spa! After the tour, return to the hotel to enjoy the remainder of the afternoon at leisure. In the evening there will be a brief meeting to discuss commencing the trek on the following morning.

13-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | INCA TRAIL ADVENTURE

The Itinerary

Itinerary 1

Day 5 Cusco - Begin 4-Day Inca Trail Adventure - Ayapata Camp

Trekking Distance: 11 kilometres

Trekking Time: Approximately 6-7 hours

Highest Altitude: 3,300 metres above sea level

Equipment: Porters will carry the cooking and camping equipment (including utensils, chairs, table). You will be responsible for carrying your own backpack.

Be ready for an early morning pick up at 04:30 to begin your Inca Trail Adventure!

You will be driven to Piscacucho, also known as Kilometre 82, where the trail starts. Before you begin your trek, it is recommended that you have a bathroom break, apply your insect repellent and sunscreen as there are very limited bathroom facilities on the trail.

Please note: Your entrance fee for the Inca Trail is included, after your purchase confirmation email has been sent to you, we will require your passport details to pre-purchase these tickets.

After all the formalities, it's time to set off along the Inca Trail! You'll follow the old Inca Trail, which was used by Inca emperors and their entourage to get to Machu Picchu. The trail begins at 2,720 metres above sea level, and will start by crossing the Vilcanota River. As you ascend and the trail enters the cloud forest, you'll have the opportunity to take in the breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape and the Inca ruins. You will be able to see the Inca fortress, Huillca Raccay, as well as the vast and incredible Inca site of Patallacta. Patallacta means "high town" or "town on the hill" in Quechua, the language of the Incas that is still spoken in some part of Peru today. This site sits at an altitude of 2,840 metres and was once the common stopping point for Incas travelling from Cusco to Machu Picchu.

Next, you will get to see the Urubamba mountain range rising up between the jungle and the Andes, where you'll be able to see the beautiful snow-capped peak of W'akay Willca, also known as Veronica, rising to 5,860 metres (19,225 feet).

Here we'll stop for the day to set up camp near the small village of Wayllabamba, located in a picturesque mountain valley at around 3,000 metres (9,842 feet) above sea level. After your first full day of trekking enjoy a delicious dinner, friendly camaraderie around the campfire and a memorable night beneath the stars.

Optional Rental Equipment available for hire. See cart for updated pricing.

- Sleeping bag
- Inflatable mattress
- Walking stick

Please note that porters will be available (at additional cost) to carry your luggage, in volumes of:

Day 6 Inca Trail: Ayapata Camp - Chaquicocha Camp

Trekking Distance: 12 kilometres Trekking Time: Approximately 6-7 hours Highest Altitude: 4,200 metres above sea level

Start your morning early and fresh with a hearty meal prepared by our tour cooks to get your day started right. This point in the classic Inca Trail is generally regarded as the most challenging day, as you have a steep ascent ahead of you. You'll be following the Inca Trail as the route rises up into the Apus, an area sacred to the Inca where the mountain spirits dwell. After a few hours of trekking, you'll reach the highest pass on the trail, the Abra de Warmihuañusca or the Dead Woman's Pass, at an elevation of 4,200 metres above sea level. To make it to this point in the trail is a truly remarkable feat, and you'll be absolutely proud of a successful once-in-a-lifetime achievement that only a few are able to claim. Once you've made it to the pass, you'll be able to take in the spectacular mountain scenery before descending down to your lunch stop located at Pacaymayu at 3,550 metres above sea level. Along the way enjoy the majestic diversity of flora and fauna unique to Peru at these particular altitudes. After lunch, continue along the trail for about 2 hours on another steep ascent. Your destination is the Runkurakay Pass, 3,700 metres above sea level and after passing this stunning archaeological site we will head to your campsite Chaquicocha. You should arrive around 17:00 and will have plenty of time to set up camp before dinner. Then it's time for bed, where you'll spend another night under the twinkling stars and reminisce about the days adventure.

Overnight: Tent accommodation, Chaquicocha Camp

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 7 Inca Trail: Chaquicocha Camp - Wiñay Wayna Camp

Trekking Distance: 16 kilometres Trekking Time: Approximately 8 hours Highest Altitude: 3,680 metres above sea level

After another hearty breakfast, set off on a relatively gentle uphill trek to your first stop of the day, the archaeological site of Phuyupatamarca, "The City Above the Clouds" located about 3,680 metres above sea level. These enchanting Inca ruins feature slopes and five small stone baths that contain fresh running water during the wet season. Moving onwards, walk up and down a series of Inca steps - 1,000 in total! You'll pass through the cloud forest to the impressive agricultural site of Intipata. Intipata translates to English from the Quechua words 'Inti' and 'Pata', meaning Sun and Place/Terrace, "Place of the Sun" or "Sun Terrace". Due to its location at the top of a mountain, it served as a control and surveillance post, as well as a checkpoint, where various produce, such as potatoes, corn and quinoa were grown on these terraces. You'll continue your walk towards a third campsite, Wiñay Wayna at 2,680 metres above sea level. After 4-5 hours of trekking, arrive at your campsite around lunchtime to set up camp, have lunch and rest before heading back on the trail to explore Wiñay Wayna, which translates to “Forever Young”. This archaeological site has a series of 10 baths and numerous Inca buildings displaying high levels of Inca masonry. Wiñay Wayna was discovered almost 30 years after the entire world knew about Machu Picchu and almost 40 years after Machu Picchu was first discovered. Little is known about what Wiñay Wayna was originally built for, however there are theories that it was built as a spiritual destination or resting place before reaching Machu Picchu, where elders and royalty would cleanse themselves in the baths. Others believe that the site functioned as a kind of administrative centre to keep track of the amount of produce stored on-site. After visiting Wiñay Wayna, you'll head back to camp for dinner and rest up for the next day's adventure and pinnacle of your trip - Machu Picchu!

Overnight: Tent accommodation, Wiñay Wayna Camp

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 8 Inca Trail: Wiñay Wayna Camp - Machu Picchu - Cusco

Trekking Distance: 6 kilometres

Trekking Time: Approximately 2 hours

Highest Altitude: 2,500 metres above sea level

To get the best out of today, you'll wake up at 04:30 to get ready for the main event - Machu Picchu. After breakfast, set out along the last section of the trail for about 1.5 hours until you reach Intipunku, “the Sun Gate”, located 2,745 metres above sea level and once used by the Incas as a control gate for anyone who wanted to enter or leave the fortress.

You'll get here just in time to see the sun to rise over the ruins, and watch as the sun spills its golden light across the landscape, slowly revealing Machu Picchu in all its glory.

Pass through the gates to discover the Machu Picchu archaeological site. Here you'll enjoy a two-hour guided tour showcasing the most famous areas of this spectacular and extensive archaeological complex. These include the House of the Guardian, Intihuatana, Temple of the Sun, Sacred Plaza and other key locations. Admire the spectacular views across the agricultural terraces of Machu Picchu and across to the surrounding mountains and plunging gorges.

Once we've finished the tour of Machu Picchu, take the bus back down to Aguas Calientes where you can relax and have lunch (not included) before boarding the train back to Poroy and Cusco. Upon arrival at the station, a tour representative will be waiting to return you to your Cusco hotel.

Optional Tour: Huayna Picchu

Looking for more adventure? Opt for an additional hike up Huayna Picchu. Please note: this additional trek requires a high/active level of fitness.

For those with enough energy left after witnessing the glory of Machu Picchu, you can choose to add on an adventure to climb the mountain of Huayna Picchu. For many, climbing Huayna Picchu is one of the highlights when visiting Machu Picchu. Huayna Picchu is the mountain behind Machu Picchu and the climb itself is interesting as you will witness how the Inca's cut out steps from the rocks as you wind around the side of the

Day 9 Cusco Free Day

After breakfast, enjoy a free day to explore Cusco at your own leisure. The capital city of the Inca Empire is now the undisputed archaeological capital of the Americas, as well as the continent's oldest continuously inhabited city.

Optional Tour: Rainbow Mountain Trek

Set off before sunrise on an unforgettable full-day adventure to Rainbow Mountain (Vinicunca), one of Peru's most spectacular natural wonders. Your day begins with a 05:00 hotel pick-up from Cusco, followed by an approximately 3-hour scenic drive through the South Valley, where you'll enjoy breathtaking Andean landscapes and a delicious breakfast en route.

Starting your hike in the small town of Pitumarca (3,310 metres), you'll follow a gentle path beside a tranquil stream with views of Mount Ausangate, one of the region's most sacred peaks. Along the way, spot grazing alpacas and llamas, and pass through remote villages where traditional Andean life still thrives. After about 1.5 hours of hiking, you'll reach Rainbow Mountain, standing at an impressive 5,100 metres. Marvel at the vibrant mineral layers that create the mountain's iconic striped appearance and enjoy approximately 30 minutes at the summit to take in the panoramic views, snap photos, and absorb the majestic setting.

The return hike is approximately 1-hour, followed by a hearty buffet lunch at a local restaurant. Afterwards, sit back and relax during the 3-hour drive back to Cusco, arriving around 16:00. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Please note: The Rainbow Mountain Trek tour requires a moderate to high level of fitness. Participants will encounter uneven surfaces, steep inclines, numerous steps and trekking at high altitudes. Prior to undertaking this optional excursion, we recommend consulting with your GP to assess your suitability for the tour.

Optional Tour: Sacred Valley Tour

Duration: Full Day

Fitness Level Required: Active/Demanding (please refer to the Important Information section for a detailed description).

You will be collected from the hotel around 05:00 to begin the trek. The drive itself takes about three hours, passing through wonderful Andean scenery along the South Valley. You'll stop for breakfast along the way, and then continue on to the trailhead at the village of Quesiuno, at about 4,326 metres (14,189 feet) above sea level.

From here, set off on the trek, first following a pretty stream, seeing herds of alpacas and llamas as they graze on the hillsides. You'll also have constant views of the sacred Ausangate Mountain, and pass occasional villages where the old traditions of the Andes are still very much alive.

13-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | INCA TRAIL ADVENTURE

Itinerary 1

Stop for a packed lunch along the trail, enjoying the scenery as you eat and take a break. Heading on, pass by the remote potato fields of this rugged region, and perhaps see some local wildlife. You may even see a chinchilla, a charming Andean rodent that has the densest fur of any mammal that lives on land. We'll also keep an eye out for vicuñas, one of the two wild South American camelids that live in the high alpine areas of the Andes (the other being the guanaco).

As you near your final destination, you'll start to see many red mountains, and after trekking for about five hours, you'll finally reach Vinicunca, the spectacular Rainbow Mountain. Here, at a literally breathtaking 5,020 metres above sea level, you'll start exploring the area, which is a series of coloured mountains, not just one. Hike up to the top of Rainbow Mountain, where you'll spend about 30 minutes, allowing plenty of time to enjoy the view and take photos.

Once you've had time to take in all the magnificent sights, set off on the return trek, which will take three to four hours. Private transport will be waiting to take you back to Cusco, taking about three hours. You will arrive back in Cusco in the evening. You will be dropped off at your hotel, with the memories of the mesmerising Rainbow Mountain still fresh in your mind. See online Important Information for pricing.

You'll get here just in time to see the sun to rise over the ruins, and watch as the sun spills its golden light across the landscape, slowly revealing Machu Picchu in all its glory.

Pass through the gates to discover the Machu Picchu archaeological site. Here you'll enjoy a two-hour guided tour showcasing the most famous areas of this spectacular and extensive archaeological complex. These include the House of the Guardian, Intihuatana, Temple of the Sun, Sacred Plaza and other key locations. Admire the spectacular views across the agricultural terraces of Machu Picchu and across to the surrounding mountains and plunging gorges.

Itinerary 2

Once we've finished the tour of Machu Picchu, take the bus back down to Aguas Calientes where you can relax and have lunch (not included) before boarding the train back to Poroy and Cusco. Upon arrival at the station, a tour representative will be waiting to return you to your Cusco hotel.

Optional Tour: Huayna Picchu

Looking for more adventure? Opt for an additional hike up Huayna Picchu. Please note: this additional trek requires a high/active level of fitness.

For those with enough energy left after witnessing the glory of Machu Picchu, you can choose to add on an adventure to climb the mountain of Huayna Picchu. For many, climbing Huayna Picchu is one of the highlights when visiting Machu Picchu. Huayna Picchu is the mountain behind Machu Picchu and the climb itself is interesting as you will witness how the Inca's cut out steps from the rocks as you wind around the side of the mountain. Take the chance to marvel at the majestic sights of Machu Picchu from different angles! See online Important Information for pricing.

Overnight: Costa del Sol Ramada Cusco or similar, Cusco

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 9 Cusco Free Day

After breakfast, enjoy a free day to explore Cusco at your own leisure. The capital city of the Inca Empire is now the undisputed archaeological capital of the Americas, as well as the continent's oldest continuously inhabited city.

Optional Tour: Rainbow Mountain

Set off before sunrise on an unforgettable full-day adventure to Rainbow Mountain (Vinicunca), one of Peru's most spectacular natural wonders. Your day begins with a 05:00 hotel pick-up from Cusco, followed by an approximately 3-hour scenic drive through the South Valley, where you'll enjoy breathtaking Andean landscapes and a delicious breakfast en route.

Starting your hike in the small town of Pitumarca (3,310 metres), you'll follow a gentle path beside a tranquil stream with views of Mount Ausangate, one of the region's most sacred peaks. Along the way, spot grazing alpacas and llamas, and pass through remote villages where traditional Andean life still thrives. After about 1.5 hours of hiking, you'll reach Rainbow Mountain, standing at an impressive 5,100 metres. Marvel at the vibrant mineral layers that create the mountain's iconic striped appearance and enjoy approximately 30 minutes at the summit to take in the panoramic views, snap photos, and absorb the majestic setting.

The return hike is approximately 1-hour, followed by a hearty buffet lunch at a local restaurant. Afterwards, sit back and relax during the 3-hour drive back to Cusco, arriving around 16:00. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Please note: The Rainbow Mountain Trek tour requires a moderate to high level of fitness. Participants will encounter uneven surfaces, steep inclines, numerous steps and trekking at high altitudes. Prior to undertaking this optional excursion, we recommend consulting with your GP to assess your suitability for the tour.

Optional Tour: Sacred Valley Tour

Duration: Full Day

13-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | INCA TRAIL ADVENTURE

The Itinerary

Itinerary 2

The Sacred Valley of the Incas is a stunning valley situated north of Cusco. It's also known as the Urubamba Valley, as it stretches from Pisac to Ollantaytambo, irrigated by the Urubamba River.

Civilisations have inhabited this valley since at least 800 BC when the Chanapata civilisation arrived here to make use of the rich soil, so today you'll embark on a full-day tour to discover the fascinating archaeological sites of civilisations past. You'll first head to magnificent Moray. Although the journey is about 1.5 hours, you'll drive through spectacular Andean scenery, passing yellow wheat fields, picturesque traditional villages, and snow-capped mountains. Arriving at Moray, your guide will show you around the three amphitheatre-like terraced structures. These terraces, which are carved in a circular series to create a bowl shape, are believed to have been used as a testing ground for various crops to find the most optimal growing conditions. It's an incredible sight and gives real insight into the genius of the Inca Empire.

After exploring Moray, you'll head on to Maras to see the amazing salt evaporation ponds, which were used by the Incas and pre-Inca civilisations. Here you'll find more than 3,000 salt pools carved into the mountainside, which catch highly salty water as it emerges from a spring in the mountain. The ponds catch this water, where it then slowly evaporates, leaving just the salt behind. This is collected via a communal process and is most famously used to make sal de Maras, the famous pink table salt. It's an incredible sight looking down across the salt ponds, which appear to be covered in snow or ice.

After lunch (not included), you'll travel another 30 minutes to the wonderful Inca town and archaeological site of Ollantaytambo. This was the royal estate of the Inca emperor Pachacuti, who conquered the region and built the town and a ceremonial centre. Here, you'll have the opportunity to explore these magnificent ruins, visit the awe-inspiring Temple of the Sun, and see massive blocks of rock that were perfectly carved and polished by master Inca stonemasons. Ollantaytambo is a fine example of Inca agricultural construction and hydro-engineering, featuring a complex series of stone water fountains, channels, and farming terraces that were organised by elevation to create different microclimates for crop experimentation. Walking to the town square, you'll have great views of the ruins above you as well as Inca granaries and storehouses built on the sides of the surrounding mountains. Here, you can also observe the daily life of Ollantaytambo locals, who still wear traditional attire. After your tour, you will be returned to your hotel, where the remainder of your afternoon will be at your leisure. See online Important Information for pricing.

Overnight: Costa del Sol Ramada Cusco or similar, Cusco
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 10 Cusco Free Day

After your adventures and completing the Inca trek to reach Machu Picchu, it's time to relax with a full day at leisure to enjoy all that Cusco has to offer!

Optional Tour: Cusco Cooking Class & Local Market Tour

13-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | INCA TRAIL ADVENTURE

The Itinerary

Itinerary 2

You'll be picked up from your hotel after breakfast and taken to the colour and bustling San Pedro market in Cusco. Marvel at the interesting and wide variety of fresh fruits, vegetables, meats, souvenirs and handicrafts.

During your tour of the market, your chef for today's cooking class will help you select the ingredients needed for the class, while providing you with some shopping tips and discussing the unique produce Cusco has to offer.

After your market tour, you'll head to a local restaurant, where you'll be provided with the necessary clothing and tools to start your cooking class. Your experienced chef will tell you about the dishes you'll be preparing and guide you through each step (depending on seasonality). You will be using organic produce, much of which is grown in traditional communities in and around Cusco, such as potatoes and corn.

Once the class is over, you and the group will enjoy a beautiful lunch that you have prepared together. After lunch, you will be returned to your hotel, and the remainder of your afternoon will be at your leisure.

See online Important Information for pricing.

Optional tour: Folklore Dinner Show

This evening, you'll head to the Tunupa restaurant, located just near the central Plaza de Armas of Cusco (a short walk from your hotel) and experience a fabulous buffet dinner with a large selection of Peruvian dishes featuring meat, fish and vegetables. The night becomes more enjoyable when the traditional dance show begins. Get amongst the festivities and enjoy the sounds of Andean instruments, folk, traditional and classical music while sharing the dance floor with the dancers for a memorable experience. See online Important Information for pricing.

Overnight: Costa del Sol Ramada Cusco or similar, Cusco
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 11 Cusco - Puno

After breakfast at approximately 06:30, you'll be taken from your hotel to the bus station to embark on a fully-guided tour of four amazing sites - Andahuaylillas, Raqchi, La Raya & Pukara.

Andahuaylillas, also known as the Sistine Chapel of South America, this church is a beautiful example of Andean popular religious art. Visit this magnificent building and marvel at the collection of canvases of the Cusco School, murals attributed by Luis de Riaño, the "Virgin of the Assumption", a majestic organ, silver jewellery and a baroque altar.

Raqchi is the hidden jewel between the volcanoes and once a pre-Hispanic settlement of the Kanchi people. The town is one of the most important constructions of the Inca Empire, characterised by its peculiar and extraordinary architectural technique, totally different from other constructions of the time.

La Raya, is the half-way point between Cusco and Puno and also the highest point 4334 metres above sea level. The landscapes here are stunning and typical Andean animals like the llama, alpaca and vicuña are familiar sights. It is also the geographic border between two cultures Quechua and Aymara.

The Itinerary

Itinerary 2

Finally arrive at Pukara, where you'll visit the most important and oldest ceremonial centre of the altiplano. Also known as the "Red Fortress" due to the red granite used in the construction of these ruins.

Your tour ends in Puno, where you'll arrive in the late afternoon and have the remainder of your evening at leisure.

Overnight: Hotel Royal Inn Puno, Puno

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch

Day 12 Lake Titicaca

After breakfast, continue on along our cultural tour to Lake Titicaca! Lake Titicaca is the largest lake in South America with the highest navigable body of water. It borders Peru and Bolivia and is home to rural and traditional Peruvian communities. You'll board a boat to travel to the island of Taquile, one of Peru's most beautiful islands where the traditional way of life is still very much alive. Meet master weavers of this ancient Andean community, whose textiles are considered among the best in the country! After visiting the weavers and exploring the beautiful island, head down to the small port on Taquile at around midday and head by boat towards the Chucuito Peninsula. This is in the Aymara region of Lake Titicaca and represents the communal identity of the Peruvian-Bolivian altiplano. You'll encounter the small and rarely visited rural community of Luquina, where you'll enjoy a wonderful buffet lunch at a local fisherman's house. Later in the afternoon, as you head back towards Puno, visit the amazing Floating Islands of the Uros people. You'll be amazed by the scale of these floating reed island constructions, built originally by the Uros for defensive reasons so that should a threat appear, their island homes could be moved to a safer location. The islands are made from the totora reeds that grow around the lake, and each island is in a constant state of reconstruction, as old reeds are replaced by new. Stepping onto the islands is quite an experience, as the springy reed floor feels strange beneath your feet. You'll get to explore the main island, and see the houses, watchtowers and other structures, all built out of reeds. One of the locals will give a brief presentation about how the islands are made, and you then have the

Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Lima

Lima is usually described as mild and warm throughout the year without much noteworthy rain, making Lima one of the driest capitals in the world. The average temperatures range from 18°C to 28°C.

Cusco

Cusco has a subtropical highland climate due to its elevation (3500m above sea level). It is generally dry and temperate, with two defined seasons. The dry season lasts from May to August, with abundant sunshine and occasional night time freezes; July is the coldest month with an average of 9.7°C. The wet season lasts from December to March, with night frost less common; November averages 13.3°C. Temperatures usually range from 0.2°C to 20.9°C.

Puno

As Puno is located at such a high elevation (3830m above sea level), it experiences more extreme weather conditions than would be expected for its tropical latitude. The average annual temperature is about 8.4°C, and the weather never gets overly warm. During the winter months from June to August, night-time temperatures usually drop well below 0°C. At this high altitude, the rays of the sun are very strong. Most of the annual precipitation falls during the southern hemisphere summer, with the winter months being very dry.

FLIGHTS

Seat Selection & Frequent Flyer Points

We do not arrange seat selection. It is essential to highlight that some airlines do not allow pre-selected seats. We strongly suggest you contact the airline directly with seating allocation requirements and/or arrive at the airport earlier to arrange your seating. While we do not add frequent flyer member details to bookings, you can do this directly with the airline once you have your flight information.

Passport Validity

Customers must provide valid passport details either at the time of purchase or no later than 90 days before the departure date. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of the booking. Customers will be responsible for any costs and fees incurred in this instance.

COACH TOUR

Meals

For meals not included, the tour leader

(when available) will offer assistance with reservations, suggestions and directions to local restaurants. It is your responsibility to notify us of any dietary requests/requirements.

Please note: We will do our best to meet your requests/requirements; however, we cannot guarantee that we will always be able to.

Luggage

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on tour. You must carry your own luggage from the vehicle to the hotel room and back to the vehicle. The driver will assist with the uploading and unloading of bags from the vehicle.

OTHER

Mobility

If you require wheelchair access please contact our friendly sales and service team to inquire on your behalf.

Fitness Level Required

An Active/Demanding level of fitness will be required. Active is described as some high-altitude trekking, off-road biking or high-grade kayaking. More strenuous activities, suitable for a good fitness level and for guests who exercise regularly. More fast-paced activities and walking on uneven surfaces. Demanding is described as requiring a high fitness level to undertake activities, which may include high-altitude trekking for anywhere between four to seven hours per day for an extended number of days. Recommended for active travellers with some previous trekking experience.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

High Altitude Illness

Altitude illness occurs when there is a lack of oxygen in the air at high altitudes. Altitude illness will affect some travellers, with no apparent regard to age, gender or physical condition. If you have any concerns please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel. It is generally recommended to take the time to acclimatise properly, which is why you'll have a few days before and after your trek to properly acclimatise.

Please note: Inoculations may be required to enter the country visited, along with re-entry into Australia after your visit. It is your responsibility to consult with your travel doctor for up to date medical travel information well before departure.

Yellow Fever

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival.

You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Gratuities/Tipping

Land

Gratuities (tips) are not included for the services of the tour leader (when available) and driver throughout the tour. The recommended tip is $10-20 AUD per person per day. This covers the guide/leader and the driver and will be collected on tour.

Inca Trail Tipping

Generally, on the Inca Trail, groups give collective tips that are shared between the cook and all porters and are usually given on the last night of the trek. If the group pools together money and at the end of the hike and each porter receives 60 soles (approx. $25 AUD) and the cook receives 120 soles (approx. $50AUD), they will end with a great tip! Often, the tip for your guide is done personally and is generally 50 soles (approx. $20 AUD) per traveller. Tipping is of course 100% voluntary and it should only be done if you feel that your guide, porters and cooks have done an amazing job. For reference, a group of 10 travellers will have 16 porters (including the cook) and 2 guides.

Tipping for all services provided on tour is always a matter of personal discretion, however please be aware that tipping is considered by many locals to be a part of their normal remuneration and they may approach you for payment and there is no need to be intimidated by the request.

Sightseeing

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts. Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

New Zealand (Transiting)

If you do not hold an Australian passport you may be required to obtain a transit visa. Some flight routes make a stop in New Zealand and you may be required to obtain a transit visa to board your flight. It is the passengers' sole responsibility to seek advice on the correct visa and take appropriate action to ensure they have the correct visa prior to departure. Failure to do so may result in denied boarding and or refusal of entry to the country by the local authorities and immigration department. We strongly advise you to carefully review your flight tickets and then contact your respective consulate or a visa agency to confirm the necessary visa regulations and acceptable forms of personal identification for your transit.

Peru

A tourist visa for Peru is not required if travelling on an Australian Passport.

Chile (stopover)

Australian passport holders visiting Chile for tourism purposes must apply for a single or multiple tourist visas. Visas must be lodged through the SAC CIUDADANOS portal only <https://tramites.minrel.gov.cl/>. If your travel includes transiting through Chile, you should contact the nearest Embassy or Consulate of Chile to confirm if you'll need a visa. If you transit in Chile without a visa and miss your connecting flight, you won't be able to pass the immigration point. You'll be required to remain airside and not leave the airport until a new onward flight has been arranged. Australians have previously been required to remain airside for several days due to missed flight connections.

United States (Transiting/Arrive Early/Stay Behind)

If travelling on an Australian passport, an ESTA (visa waiver) for the USA is a strict requirement when travelling to or flying through the USA. Once a USA ESTA visa waiver is issued it is valid for 2 years or until your passport expires (whichever is sooner) and will allow multiple entries into the USA. For information on ESTA eligibility or to apply, please visit <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/esta/>

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.

Important Information

- Visa rules may have changed since Covid-19. Some countries and airlines may require you to obtain an additional visa before arrival. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination you're entering.

Please note:

- Due to recent changes to USA immigration policies, TripADeal recommends all travellers visit US Customs & Border Protection.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. Supplier Fees

In the event the tour package you have purchased is unable to proceed, and/or a travel Supplier is unable to fulfil the tour due to external circumstances (Limitation of Liability e.g. a Force Majeure event), there may be a fee or amount of money that is withheld by our Suppliers and is unrecoverable. This may be due to non-refundable airline tickets, cancellation penalties with cruise cabins or unrecoverable payments with our land/accommodation partners. If refunds are not available from Suppliers, we will endeavour to obtain a travel credit on the best terms available and communicate these outcomes to you. In the event we are unable to obtain a refund or travel service credit, or part thereof, this cost is passed on to the customer as a Supplier Fee.
