The Itinerary

Day 4 Rome - Pompeii Guided Tour - Amalfi Coast

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before continuing your journey to the stunning Sorrento coastline. Arrive in Pompeii later this morning to learn about this magnificent archaeological site on a locally-guided tour. Built in the ancient Roman era, delve into the history and spectacle of the city buried from the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79AD. It remains surprisingly intact, and a great insight into the life of a commercial city of ancient Rome (entrance included).

Afterwards, continue to the beautiful Amalfi Coast after an approximately 270-kilometre travel day.

Overnight: Hotel Holiday Inn Cava Dei Tirreni or similar, Amalfi Coast Area

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 5 Amalfi Coast Boat Tour - Positano & Amalfi

Today, enjoy the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Amalfi Coast on an approximately 50-kilometre travel day. Uncover the stretch of coastline along the southern edge of Italy's Sorrentine Peninsula with your tour leader. A hugely popular holiday destination, the Amalfi coast features sheer cliffs, a rugged shoreline dotted with small beaches and pastel-coloured fishing villages. The coastal road between the port city of Salerno and clifftop Sorrento winds past grand villas, terraced vineyards and cliffside lemon groves. Spend a full day exploring the beautiful villages of Positano and Amalfi with your tour leader.

Head to Salerno port terminal to board the ferry to Positano.

Upon arrival, marvel at the cliffside village of Positano on the southern Amalfi Coast. This is the coast's most picturesque and photogenic town with vertiginous houses dotting the cliffside down to the sea in a cascade of sun-bleached peach, pink and terracotta colours. No less colourful are its steep streets and steps lined with wisteria-draped hotels, smart restaurants and fashionable boutiques.

Continue by ferry to Amalfi an outstanding example of the Mediterranean landscape, this is a town in a dramatic natural setting below steep cliffs on Italy's southwest coast. Between the 9th and 11th centuries, it was the seat of a powerful maritime republic. The Arab-Norman Sant'Andrea cathedral at the heart of the town, with its striped Byzantine facade, survives from this era.

Please note:

- In case of bad weather conditions, the Amalfi Coast boat trip will not take place, and it will be replaced by a visit to the vibrant city of Naples near Mount Vesuvius volcano. Dating back to the 2nd millennium B.C. Naples holds centuries of important art and architecture. Like the city's cathedral, the Duomo di San Gennaro (entrance not included). Other major landmarks include the lavish Royal Palace and Castel Nuovo, a 13th-century castle (entrance not included).

The Itinerary

Day 6 Amalfi Coast Area - Matera City Tour - Lecce

Today, head southeast through sun-baked landscapes to the region of Puglia. On the way, stop at Matera for a guided tour and exploration of the UNESCO World Heritage site of Sassi (Italian for "stones") - a labyrinth of cave dwellings, churches, staircases, and arches, hewn out of the solid rock.

First occupied in the Palaeolithic Age, the myriad of natural caves were gradually burrowed deeper and expanded into living spaces by peasants and artisans throughout the classical and mediaeval eras. Today, these underground residences are being re-inhabited by Italians, and staying in one of the 'Sassi di Matera' cave hotels has become one of Europe's most exotic new experiences.

In the late afternoon arrive in Lecce and take the remainder of the day at leisure after an approximately 375-kilometre travel day.

Optional Activity: Traditional Lunch in Matera

3-course menu with no drinks. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Overnight: 8PiuHotel or similar, Lecce

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Lecce - Otranto

Head to Otranto on an approximately 100-kilometre travel day, a historic seaside town and port on the Adriatic coast of southern Italy. It's a small town with a lovely holiday atmosphere and makes a good destination for a day trip. The picture-perfect blue waters, white buildings and diving rocks make Otranto the frequent cover star of maps, books, and articles about Puglia.

On a clear day, it is possible to see over the Strait of Otranto to Albania. The name of Otranto is probably best known abroad for The Castle of Otranto, Horace Walpole's pioneering Gothic novel.

However, the creepy castle of Walpole's imagination bears little resemblance to the fortress of the real Otranto.

In the afternoon return to Lecce and enjoy a half-day guided tour of the city with a local guide. The Baroque architecture here is recognised for its hugely decorative gargoyles, columns, and gremlins. See the Basilica of Santa Croce that features sculptures and a rose window, Piazza del Duomo and the Sant'Oronzo Column, a Roman column topped with a bronze statue of the city's patron saint (entrances not included).

Overnight: 8PiuHotel or similar, Lecce

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Lecce - Ostuni - Alberobello

This morning, your journey continues to Ostuni, a unique town with winding streets and beautifully decorated, colourful window frames that can fool you into thinking you're somewhere in Greece. Enjoy a stroll around the old town with your tour leader to see the amazing monuments and mediaeval buildings.

The cultivation of olives is one of Puglia's greatest resources and economic certainties - enjoy a tasting of authentic local Italian olive oil while you're here.

In the afternoon, head to the spectacular town of Alberobello, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Explore the small, whitewashed stone houses here - known as Trulli - which are clustered together throughout the city and built entirely without mortar.

Today travel an approximately 120-kilometre travel day.

19-DAY CRUISE & TOUR PACKAGE | PUGLIA, AMALFI & THE MED

The Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Victor Country or similar, Alberobello Area
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 9 Alberobello - Monopoli - Polignano a Mare

After breakfast, travel towards Monopoli, a cosy town with quaint narrow streets and pretty squares. Enjoy an orientation tour of the old town with your tour leader. Like so many towns on the Adriatic, Monopoli's history has been thoroughly influenced by its east-facing position and its fortified sea-front walls and castles that tell many a story.

In the afternoon continue to Polignano a Mare, a shining gem on the coast, perched atop a 20 metre-high limestone cliff above the crystal clear waters of the Adriatic.

Polignano offers all the right ingredients for a perfect day out. The tiny old town, reached through the Porta Vecchia gate, combines charming, white-washed streets with beautiful old churches such as the Chiesa Matrice. Enjoy the ocean view from one of three panoramic terraces offering breathtaking views of the beautiful Adriatic Sea and coastline.

You can enjoy a swim at the famous beach just a few minutes' walk from the old centre. A firm favourite with the locals, the beach has crystal clear waters and is flanked on two sides by cliffs from which children and teenagers dive all through the day until sunset.

Later this afternoon, return back to Alberobello and check into the accommodation after an approximately 70 km travel day.

Overnight: Hotel Victor Country or similar, Alberobello Area
Meals included: Breakfast

In the afternoon you will be transferred to the cruise terminal to embark on your spectacular Mediterranean voyage!

Today's drive is approximately a 55-kilometre travel day.

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

Please note:
