Day 2 Volcanoes, Temples & Rice Paddies

After breakfast, the day begins with a full-day tour of Ubud and its surroundings. The first stop is Tibumana Waterfall, a stunning cascade set in a lush jungle, perfect for a swim and photos. Next, the tour continues to Penglipuran Village, a traditional village where the inhabitants preserve their culture in daily life. Well known for its historic layout and preserved culture. The grounds are covered by neatly manicured gardens and a single stone paved pathway that runs straight through the centre of the village leading towards the local temple. Throughout the years, Penglipuran has slowly evolved into a community-based tourism destination in order to amplify the local economy of the village. Afterwards, head to Kintamani. Located in northeastern Bali at the Mount Batur caldera. This cool climate area encompasses Penelokan, Toya Bungkah, Batur, Kedisan, Abung, Songan, and Kintamani villages. These villages offer different spectacular views of the Crater Lake and Mount Batur.

After, you'll head to Tirta Empul, one of Bali's most spiritual sites. This sacred Hindu temple, known for its holy spring water, offers visitors a chance to participate in traditional purification rituals. Surrounded by lush greenery, Tirta Empul provides a serene atmosphere where you can immerse yourself in both the spiritual practices and the natural beauty of the area. The last stop of the day is at Tegallalang Rice Terraces. Famous for its beautiful scenes of rice paddies involving the subak (traditional Balinese cooperative irrigation system), which according to history, was passed down by a revered holy man named Rsi Markandeya in the eighth century. Tegallalang forms the three most splendid terraced landscapes in Ubud's shared region, with the others being the villages of Pejeng and Campuhan.

Please note: When visiting Tirta Empul, it is important to dress respectfully to honour the sacred nature of the temple. Visitors are required to wear a sarong and sash, which are often provided at the entrance. Shoulders and knees should be covered, and it's advisable to avoid wearing revealing clothing. This respectful attire ensures that all visitors can properly participate in the purification rituals and explore the temple grounds in accordance with local customs and traditions.

As of 1 September 2025 passengers must complete the All Indonesia Arrival Card. This is free of charge and can be completed online within 72 hours of your departure date. This is in addition to the e-VOA and the Bali Tourism Levy.

e-VOA

A tourist visa will be issued upon arrival if staying less than 30 days if travelling on an Australian passport. A visa fee of IDR 500,000 (approximately AUD $50, subject to change) and it is best to have this amount in cash upon arrival to ensure smooth entry. To avoid the queues at the airport, you can apply in advance (no later than 48 hours prior to travelling to Indonesia). You can apply for an e-Visa on Arrival (e-VOA). Check the e-VOA requirements from Indonesian Immigration before applying.

Bali Tourism Levy

The Bali Provincial Government has introduced a new tourist levy of IDR 150,000 per person to foreign tourists entering Bali. The tourist levy is separate from the e-Visa on Arrival or the Visa on Arrival. Cashless payments can be made online prior to travel or on arrival at designated payment counters at Bali's airport and seaport. Exemption from payment of the levy applies to transit passengers and certain visa holders. See the Bali Provincial Government's official website

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.
