It was here, in 480 BC, that Spartan King Leonidas and his 300 warriors, alongside an allied Greek force, made their heroic last stand against the vast Persian army of King Xerxes. A monument dedicated to Leonidas and his Spartans serves as a tribute to their bravery and unwavering commitment to defending their homeland.

Stroll at a leisurely pace through the charming cobblestone streets, lined with quaint shops, cafés, and stone mansions. Don't miss a visit to the island's cathedral or take a moment to enjoy a coffee by the harbour as donkeys and water taxis carry on the daily rhythm of island life.

18-DAY CRUISE & TOUR PACKAGE | BEST OF GREECE & EGYPT

The Itinerary

Overnight: Jaz Pyramids or similar, Cairo
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 10 Giza - Pyramids

After breakfast, the day begins with an exploration of ancient Egypt, starting at the iconic Pyramids of Giza. The Great Pyramid of Cheops, constructed entirely by manual labour, stands as the largest of the three main pyramids and remains the only surviving wonder of the original Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Nearby are the Pyramid of Chephren, the best-preserved of the trio, and the Pyramid of Mycerinus, notable for its smaller scale yet significant historical value.

A short distance away lies the majestic Sphinx, carved from a natural rocky outcrop. This extraordinary monument features the body of a lion stretching 45 meters in length, with front paws extending 15 meters.

The journey continues with a visit to the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), home to a vast collection of ancient artefacts. Notable highlights include the Hanging Obelisk, the towering statue of King Ramesses II, ten statues of Pharaoh Sensusret, the Victory Column of Merenptah, statues of a Ptolemaic King and Queen, and the impressive Grand Staircase Gallery.

With 107 exhibition halls, the museum's ground floor features monumental statues, while additional sections include a dedicated photography area and a comprehensive library.

The day continues with a visit to the Coptic Christian community, the majority of Egypt's Christian population. Followers of the Coptic Orthodox Church, the Copts are regarded as direct descendants of the Ancient Egyptians and were among the earliest to embrace Christianity. The term "Copt" originates from the Arabic "Qibt" or "Gibt," itself derived from the Greek "Aegyptos," which in turn stems from the Ancient Egyptian name "Hikaptah" (Ha-Ka-Ptah), the ancient name for Memphis—Egypt's first capital around 3100 BC.

The Coptic Church traces its spiritual roots to St. Mark, the traditional author of the Gospel of Mark, who is considered the founding father of the Coptic Orthodox Church.

Greek Accommodation Tax

As part of its comprehensive strategy to finance the reconstruction efforts following devastating forest fires and floods, the Greek government has introduced a new accommodation tax, which has officially taken effect from January 2024. Known as the "climate resilience levy", this tax represents a significant departure from the previous bed tax and is structured to be paid by tourists at their lodging upon check-in. This fee will vary depending on the travel season.

From March to October, the new tourist tax will increase accommodation costs. The fees for hotels will increase as follows:

- Approximately 5 euros per night for 3-star hotels
- Approximately 10 euros per night for 4-star hotels
- Approximately 15 euros per night for 5-star hotels.

From November to February, the rate will vary from 1.5 euro to 4 euros, depending on the hotel category.

Please note: Above mentioned taxes are not included and travellers are required to settle these fees locally, in the local currency, directly at the accommodation.

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Greece

Temperatures in March, experience mild temperatures with gradual warming as the month progresses. Coastal areas and islands typically have average daytime temperatures ranging from 15°C to 20°C. Inland areas, including cities like Athens and Thessaloniki, can have temperatures ranging from 10°C to 15°C. April is a great time to visit Greece, when the mean temperature is 21°C degrees and rainfall is minimal and continues on through to October with average temperatures ranging from 21-29°C. Days are sunny and clear!

Egypt

There is never a shortage of sunshine in Egypt, with averages of 11 hours a day during the summer and 8 hours a day in winter. From April to October the average temperature ranges from 21-28 C while between November and March this drops to 13-20C. This does vary along the Mediterranean coast which, while still warm, is more prone to periods of cloud and rain in winter. Generally, winters in Egypt are warm enough to allow pleasant and comfortable travelling all year long, though travellers should be prepared for cold nights.
