The Itinerary

Itinerary 4

Day 5 San Juan, Puerto Rico

Although its earliest settlers left few clues, it's known that the archipelago of Puerto Rico was populated by the Taino people at the time Columbus arrived here during his second visit to the New World in 1493. It would remain under Spanish control for four centuries. Keeping it that way meant building a flurry of forts around its shores to ward off interest from other European powers. Among them are Fort San Cristobal, the immense defensive fortification completed in 1783, and San Felipe del Morro, a 16th-century citadel with well-preserved barracks, tunnels and dungeons. You also can't help but admire the duck egg blue and white fortified palace of La Fortaleza. These, together with San Juan de la Cruz (El Canuelo), and a large portion of the original San Juan City Wall, have been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site collectively known as Old San Juan.

You'll almost certainly want to stroll amidst another of Puerto Rico's most postcard-friendly faces too, the atmospheric Old Town. In this 465-year-old residential and commercial neighbourhood, the buildings' facades are painted in a rainbow of bright colours, adorned with ornate wrought iron lampposts and balconies.

Exploring San Juan offers you all sorts of ways to fall under Puerto Rico's spell. You might admire the fabulous cathedral or contemplate the works this beautiful archipelago has inspired at the vast, modern Museo de Arte with collections from both local and international artists, a 400-seat theatre and an adjoining sculpture garden.

Overnight: Cunard Queen Elizabeth

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 6 St John's, Antigua

Nestled alongside the turquoise waters of northeast Antigua, the capital of St. John's is a picturesque setting to begin your Antiguan experience.

A popular and bustling port town, St. John's is dappled with lush greenery and is home to more white sandy beaches than you could imagine. You could spend an afternoon strolling the historical streets of the town and gaze up at all the ancient architecture and imposing 18th century fortifications. Or perhaps you'd rather grab a refreshing cocktail as you relax on a sun lounger, looking out onto the rich blue hues of the Caribbean Sea? Find plenty of wonderful ways to spend your time here. Perhaps venture across the island to explore the historical remnants of British colonialism, lose yourself snorkelling in the underwater coral wonderlands along the coast, or simply take in the beautiful flora and fauna that thrive on this natural Caribbean masterpiece.

Overnight: Cunard Queen Elizabeth

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 7 Castries, St Lucia

As with many of the Caribbean islands, St Lucia has a European colonial history. The French settled here in the mid-17th century, and Castries itself was founded in 1650. Its original name was Carénage, which translates to 'careening', or 'beaching', relating to the ships brought ashore here.

13-DAY CRUISE PACKAGE | CUNARD'S ULTIMATE CARIBBEAN GETAWAY

The Itinerary

Itinerary 4

Elements of French influence can be seen throughout Castries, from its wonderful fusion food to colonial-style architecture. Not to mention the French-based Creole language that you'll hear as you explore. Top landmarks and sights in Castries, St Lucia: With its colonial past, Castries is home to some important historical landmarks and rewarding lookout points.

The Minor Basilica of the Immaculate Conception (Cathedral), found in the centre of three streets – Peynier, Micoud, and Laborie Street, this cathedral is the largest in the Caribbean. The building that stands today was erected in the 1890s; however, churches had stood on the same site since the late 18th century. The cathedral has long been a central focal point in Castries and is attended by locals and tourists alike during mass. Colourful frescos adorn the interior, and bright, booming choir voices fill the space with ease.

Overnight: Cunard Queen Elizabeth

Day 8 Bridgetown, Barbados

A town steeped in history, surrounded by abundant natural beauty, with plenty to see and do, Bridgetown is the perfect place to enjoy a generous helping of Caribbean charm and culture. Sitting on the southwestern side of the island of Barbados, Bridgetown is a lively and bustling gateway to the wider treasures of the island. From sun-kissed beaches, underground caverns, and glass-like lagoons, to emerald jungles and vast historic plantations, Barbados is a paradise just waiting to be explored. The island of Barbados gets its name from the Bearded Fig Tree, which was once found in abundance across the island. The capital city, Bridgetown, is home to a charming combination of traditional colonial buildings and rich Caribbean vibrancy and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2011.
