The Offer

Luxury lovers, this one's for you! Immerse yourself in the unique cityscapes and historical wonders that grace Asia. Discover the best that Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand and more have to offer over a 20 day luxurious holiday.

Your Asian adventure begins in sprawling Hong Kong. Enjoy time at leisure to head to Disneyland, see Tian Tan Buddha, or admire waterfront scenery from Victoria Harbour. From here, a seamless transfer will take you to board Seabourn Encore. This is an ultra-luxurious ship renowned for its elegance, world-class hospitality and personalised service. Indulge in gourmet dining by Michelin-starred chefs, savour complimentary caviar, sip fine wines while enjoying live entertainment and more.

Set sail to the waters of Vietnam to see the limestone karsts of Ha Long Bay and the iconic Dragon Bridge in Da Nang. Spend the night docked in Ho Chi Minh City, ideal for visiting the Cu Chi Tunnels and War Remnants Museum. Afterwards, embrace the tropical atmosphere and white sand beaches of Sihanoukville as you cruise into Cambodia. Let Thailand take your breath away with balmy delights in Koh Kood island and cosmopolitan highlights in Bangkok.

Disembark in Singapore to enjoy free time visiting Gardens by the Bay, riding the Singapore Flyer or shopping along Orchard Road.

See the world with return international full-service flights, a 14-night all-inclusive cruise, 5-star hotel accommodation, 41 meals and more.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Hong Kong

From January to March, Hong Kong experiences mild and relatively dry weather, making it one of the most pleasant times of the year to visit. In January, temperatures typically range from 14°C to 19°C, with occasional cool spells brought on by northeasterly winds. February remains similar, with average temperatures between 15°C and 20°C, though humidity starts to increase slightly. By March, the weather begins to warm up, with temperatures ranging from 17°C to 22°C. Rainfall also starts to pick up toward the end of March, signalling the approach of spring. Overall, the period from January to March is generally comfortable, with cool breezes, occasional sunshine, and minimal rainfall.

Vietnam

From January to March, Vietnam experiences a diverse range of weather conditions across its regions. In the north, including areas like Hanoi and Ha Long Bay, the climate is cool and often overcast, with temperatures ranging from 13°C to 20°C in January and February, rising slightly to 17°C to 23°C by March. Central Vietnam, covering destinations such as Da Nang, Hoi An, and Hue, sees milder conditions, with some rain early in the year and temperatures between 18°C and 24°C, improving to a warmer and drier 22°C to 28°C in March. Meanwhile, southern Vietnam, including Ho Chi Minh City and the Mekong Delta, enjoys consistently warm and sunny weather throughout the period, with temperatures ranging from 25°C to 35°C and very little rainfall, making it an ideal time for beach trips and outdoor activities.

Cambodia

From January to March, Cambodia experiences warm, dry, and sunny weather, making it one of the best times of the year to visit. January is typically the coolest month, with temperatures ranging from 21°C to 31°C, low humidity, and clear skies. February remains dry but begins to warm up, with daytime temperatures rising to around 33°C. By March, the heat intensifies, with temperatures ranging from 24°C to 35°C, and the humidity starts to increase slightly, although rainfall remains minimal. This period falls within Cambodia's dry season, offering ideal conditions for exploring temples, countryside, and cities with little interruption from rain.

Thailand

From January to March, Thailand enjoys warm, dry, and sunny weather, making it a popular time for travel across the country. In central and northern regions such as Bangkok and Chiang Mai, January brings pleasant temperatures ranging from 20°C to 32°C, with low humidity and clear skies. February sees a slight rise in heat, with temperatures around 22°C to 34°C, and by March, the days become noticeably hotter, reaching 24°C to 36°C in many areas. In the southern coastal regions like Phuket and Koh Samui, the weather remains consistently warm and tropical, ranging from 25°C to 33°C, with very little rainfall and plenty of sunshine. Overall, January to March is part of Thailand's dry season, offering ideal conditions for beach holidays, outdoor adventures, and cultural sightseeing.

Singapore

From January to March, Singapore experiences warm and humid tropical weather, with occasional rain and consistent temperatures throughout the period. January is part of the Northeast Monsoon season, bringing frequent short bursts of rain, but temperatures remain steady, typically ranging from 24°C to 31°C. In February, rainfall starts to decrease slightly, and the weather becomes a bit drier, with temperatures hovering between 25°C and 32°C. By March, Singapore transitions into the inter-monsoon period, with a mix of sunshine and brief afternoon showers, and temperatures ranging from 25°C to 33°C. Despite the humidity, this period is comfortable for travel, with lush greenery and vibrant city life enhanced by the tropical climate.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

FLIGHTS

Seat Selection & Frequent Flyer Points

We do not arrange seat selection. It is essential to highlight that some airlines do not allow pre-selected seats. We strongly suggest you contact the airline directly with seating allocation requirements and/or arrive at the airport earlier to arrange your seating. While we do not add frequent flyer member details to bookings, you can do this directly with the airline once you have your flight information.

Passport Validity

Customers must provide valid passport details either at the time of purchase or no later than 45 days before the departure date. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of the booking. Customers will be responsible for any costs and fees incurred in this instance.

CRUISE

Embarkation/Disembarkation

- Begins approximately 2 hours after docking.
- Due to security reasons, all guests must be on board 2 hours before sailing.
- Itineraries are subject to change at any time without notice.
- Check your specific sailing for exact departure and arrival times. All times are local to the port.

Please note: Strict Covid-19 terms may also apply regarding proof of insurance covering Covid-19 and/or vaccination. Please refer to the cruise lines' terms and conditions for further information before boarding.

Cruise Loyalty Discounts

Please note: Travellers must contact the cruise line directly upon receiving their travel documents in order to request any membership benefits they may be entitled to.

Meals

For meals not included, the tour leader (when available) will offer assistance with reservations, suggestions and directions to local restaurants. It is your responsibility to notify us of any dietary requests/requirements.

Please note: We will do our best to meet your requests/requirements; however, we cannot guarantee that we will always be able to.

Luggage

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on tour. You must carry your own luggage from the vehicle to the hotel room and back to the vehicle. The driver will assist with the uploading and unloading of bags from the vehicle.

OTHER

Mobility

If you require wheelchair access please contact our friendly sales and service team to inquire on your behalf.

Fitness Level Required

Adventure (and spontaneity) create some of the best travel memories. Bear in mind, your home schedules and timings might not be adhered to on tour - it's all part of the fun!

A relaxed level of fitness will be required. Expect a comfortable pace of touring with a focus on leisure time and gentle activity. This may include city tours, the ability to walk up and down small flights of stairs and gentle slopes. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance.

Please note:

- Some areas may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or mobility scooters, with personal walking sticks and other aids required should they be needed. Although some assistance may be available, every traveller should be self-reliant during all aspects of their travel.
- It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.
- If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Yellow Fever

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival. You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Sightseeing

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts. Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour

Important Information

Visas

Hong Kong

Australian passport holders are visa exempt for a stay of up to 90 days. The traveller must hold a passport valid at least six months on entry with two blank visa pages

Vietnam

Australian passport holders are eligible to apply online for a single entry electronic visa (e-visa), valid for up to a maximum of 90 days. Lodge your application online (for a non-refundable fee) with the Vietnamese National Web Portal of Immigration. You will be given a unique code to track your visa application status. Once your visa is granted, you must print it out and present it at check in. Keep this e-visa print out with you at all times during your travel in Vietnam.

Some private online visa services and travel agents have scammed travellers or been involved in the public disclosure of the personal information of applicants for visas and 'visa issued on arrival' approval letters. To avoid such scams, only use official Government of Vietnam services to arrange your visa. Visa and other entry and exit conditions (such as currency, customs and quarantine regulations) change regularly. Contact the nearest Embassy or Consulate of Vietnam for up-to-date information.

Cambodia

For Australian and New Zealand passport holders to enter Cambodia you'll need a visa. You can apply for an e-visa online through the Cambodian Government's official portal www.evisa.gov.kh or through an embassy or consulate of Cambodia. Alternatively, you can get a tourist visa on arrival. All travellers are also required to submit the Cambodia e-Arrival Card within 7 days before their arrival. See <https://www.arrival.gov.kh/> for more information

Thailand

Australian passport holders are visa-exempt for a stay of up to 60 days. The traveller must hold a passport valid for at least six months with one blank visa page.

Mandatory Digital Arrival Card Requirement

All travellers to Thailand are required to apply for the mandatory Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC) within 3 days prior to arrival, including the day of arrival. The TDAC can be applied here free of charge. The following categories are not required to submit TDAC:

- Travellers holding a Border Pass
- Travellers transiting Thailand without leaving the transit area

Singapore

Australian passport holders are visa-exempt for a stay of up to 90 days. The traveller must hold a passport valid at least six months beyond the period of intended stay with one blank visa page

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.

- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. For more information or advice visit <https://www.tripadeal.com.au/travel-insurance>

Schedule Of Fees

Voluntary Changes

This includes booking changes requested by you, including but not limited to those changes requiring an airline ticket or a Purchase Confirmation reissue.

- Changes - $100 per booking and any additional charges applied by the airline/ cruise company/accommodation/other travel providers.

Name Changes Due To Passenger Error

If the incorrect name has been provided, charges of $100 per booking and any additional charges applied by the airline/ cruise company/accommodation/other travel providers.

Supplier Fees

In the event the tour package you have purchased is unable to proceed, and/or a Travel Supplier is unable to fulfil the tour due to external circumstances (Limitation of Liability e.g. a Force Majeure event), there may be a fee or amount of money that is withheld by our Suppliers and is unrecoverable. This may be due to non-refundable airline tickets, cancellation penalties with cruise cabins or unrecoverable payments with our land/accommodation partners. If refunds are not available from Suppliers, we will endeavour to obtain a travel credit on the best terms available and communicate these outcomes to you. In the event we are unable to obtain a refund or travel service credit, or part thereof, this cost is passed on to the customer as a Supplier Fee.

Important Information
