Day 7 Penang, Malaysia Arrive: 07:00 - Depart: 18:00

coins into the jungle as an incentive. The island was renamed Prince of Wales Island, and its major town was christened Georgetown after King George III. Whether the story is true or not, Penang quickly became a significant trading port for tea, spices, china and cloth. Here, European, Malaysian, Hindu, Arabic, and Chinese cultures met, melded, and flourished.

Today George Town is a cosmopolitan city that has preserved its unique heritage and its exotic blend of cultures. George Town is perhaps the best-preserved city in Southeast Asia. It boasts a European-style esplanade and a wealth of temples, mosques and Chinese clan houses. Listed as a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site in 2008, this virgin paradise has no shortage of cultural sights and natural scenery.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Singapore

In October and November, Singapore experiences hot and humid weather, typical of its tropical rainforest climate. Daytime temperatures generally range from 31°C to 33°C, while nighttime temperatures stay warm, around 24°C to 26°C. October marks the tail end of the Southwest Monsoon season and can be quite humid with occasional heavy showers, especially in the afternoons. In November, the Northeast Monsoon begins, bringing an increase in rainfall and more frequent thunderstorms, particularly during the late afternoons and early evenings. Despite the rain, sunshine is still common earlier in the day, and temperatures remain consistently high throughout both months. Visitors should be prepared for sudden downpours, but these showers are usually short-lived and followed by clear skies.

Malaysia

In October, Malaysia experiences warm and humid weather across the country, with average daytime temperatures ranging from 30°C to 33°C, and nighttime temperatures around 23°C to 25°C. In Kuala Lumpur, the capital, expect frequent afternoon showers and thunderstorms as part of the inter-monsoon season, with high humidity and occasional heavy downpours. Langkawi, on the northwest coast, begins to see the tail end of its rainy season, but still experiences regular rainfall, although often in short, intense bursts with sunny periods in between. Penang shares similar weather patterns, with warm days and a mix of sunshine and tropical showers, particularly in the late afternoon. While rain is common throughout Malaysia in October, it's usually manageable and often brief, allowing for sightseeing and outdoor activities between showers.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Important Information

Yellow Fever:

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival.

You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.
