Crossing to the south side, admire the elegant Georgian architecture, particularly around Merrion Square – once home to Oscar Wilde and now owned by an American college. Take in the charm of colourful Georgian doors, the bustling shopping haven of Grafton Street, and nearby St. Stephen's Green. Just off Kildare Street, you'll spot the former residence of Bram Stoker, the famed author of Dracula. This quarter is also home to Trinity College, which houses the renowned Book of Kells within its historic library.

The tour continues into the medieval heart of Dublin, where you'll see Dublin Castle and the city's two impressive Anglican cathedrals. Conclude your Dublin experience with a visit to the world-famous Guinness Storehouse. Located at the Guinness Brewery, the largest stout-producing facility in Europe, the Storehouse offers an engaging and interactive journey through the story of Ireland's iconic beer. Learn about the ingredients, brewing process, and the craftsmanship behind every pint. Discover how Guinness has been marketed over the years and exported to over 150 countries. At the end of the tour, enjoy a complimentary pint in the Gravity Bar while taking in panoramic views over the Dublin skyline. You'll also have the opportunity to witness (or try yourself) the perfect technique for pulling a pint of Guinness.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

In contrast, the winter months from December to February are pleasant, with daytime temperatures around 24°C and cooler evenings. Rainfall is scarce, averaging about 100 mm annually, and occurs mainly between December and March.

United Kingdom & Ireland

Both May and June are very pleasant times to visit the UK and Ireland when the weather is mild and the flowers are blooming. At this time of year, the average temperature is 16°C, which is considerably warmer than the previous months.
July and August are when the summer season is coming to a close. During these months, the average temperature is 18°C. As August progresses, the daily temperatures slowly decrease as summer blends into autumn.
The weather starts to cool down in September and October when the autumn season is setting in. During this time of year, the average temperature is 10°C.

A moderate level of fitness will be required. Expect a moderate pace of touring with a focus on guided tours that may include full days with extended activities, guided city tours or nature walks. You will require a general level of fitness for unassisted navigation of stairs and inclines, longer distances with possible periods of standing when visiting sites, walking on sloping and uneven ground or elevations. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance.

Please note: It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

Dubai (U.A.E.)

As of 8th January 2025, all Australian and New Zealand passport holders will require an ETA to enter the UK. An ETA gives visitors permission to travel to the UK. Visitors who do not currently need a visa may need to apply for an electronic travel authorisation (ETA) to travel to the UK, please refer to the UK Government website for further information.

Ireland

A tourist visa of up to 90 days will be issued on arrival when travelling on an Australian passport.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
