Varanasi, a city located along the western bank of the Ganges River in Uttar Pradesh, is one of the Hindus' most sacred pilgrimage destinations. Known to the British as Benaras, the city is steeped in history and spiritual significance, with mentions in the ancient epics of the Mahabharata and Ramayana. It was already a thriving trade centre when Buddha delivered his first sermon at Sarnath, approximately 10 kilometres away, around 500 BC.

The author Mark Twain once wrote: “Benaras is older than history, older than tradition, older even than legend and looks twice as old as all of them put together.”

Varanasi remains a profound symbol of Hindu spirituality, where rituals and traditions have been preserved and revered through the ages. In the evening, witness the mesmerising Aarti ceremony along the banks of the Ganges. This glittering ritual of light and devotion, set against the backdrop of the sacred river, offers a powerful and unforgettable experience.

The banks of the Ganges are the heart of religious activity in this ancient city, with ghats serving as significant locations for worship, bathing, and cultural rituals. Visit the Alamgir Mosque, a fascinating blend of Hindu and Mughal architecture. Continue to the Durga Temple, also known as the Monkey Temple, dedicated to Goddess Durga. Explore the Vishwanath Temple, one of the most famous and holiest temples dedicated to Lord Shiva, and the Tulsi Manas Temple, a beautiful temple where the ancient Hindu epic Ramcharitmanas was written. Enjoy the afternoon at leisure or participate in an optional activity.

Optional Activity: Excursion to Sarnath

In the afternoon, enjoy an excursion to Sarnath, one of Varanasi's most sacred Buddhist sites. Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.
