The Itinerary

Day 1 Australia (or New Zealand) - Kathmandu, Nepal

Your Nepalese adventure begins today! Board your international flight to Kathmandu, the vibrant capital nestled in the Himalayas.

On arrival at Kathmandu Airport, you'll receive a warm traditional welcome with garlanding before being met by a tour representative. You'll then be transferred to your hotel for check-in. As you settle in, you'll receive a Welcome Folder containing important tour documents, and your representative will provide a briefing on the journey ahead.

Kathmandu, the bustling heart of Nepal, is the country's largest city and sits at the centre of the Kathmandu Valley. It's surrounded by two historic sister cities: Patan (Lalitpur), just 5km to the southeast, and Bhaktapur, 14km to the east. Beyond being the nation's capital, Kathmandu is the headquarters of Nepal's Central Region, offering a fascinating blend of ancient culture and modern energy.

Please note: Due to flight schedules, some departures may occur the night before (Day 0). If this applies to you, your final documents, available at least six weeks before departure, will confirm your flight details.

Overnight: Kathmandu (Standard or Premium Option)
Meals included: In-Flight

Day 2 Kathmandu

After breakfast, set out on a guided city tour to explore Kathmandu's rich history and culture.

Your first stop is Kathmandu Durbar Square, a stunning complex of palaces, courtyards and temples built between the 12th and 18th centuries. Once the seat of the ancient Malla kings, this UNESCO World Heritage-listed site is the heart of the city's social, religious and urban life. One of its most fascinating features is a 17th-century stone inscription embedded in the palace wall, written in 15 languages. Another fascinating sight is the Temple of the Living Goddess, Kumari, where you can catch a glimpse of Nepal's revered living deity.

Continue to Swayambhunath Stupa, one of Nepal's holiest Buddhist sites, atop a hill overlooking the Kathmandu Valley. Also known as Sengu or the Monkey Temple, this sacred site is steeped in legend, with its origins tied to the valley's creation. As you explore, take in the breathtaking views and soak up the spiritual energy of this UNESCO-listed landmark.

Optional Tour: Boudhanath Stupa & Patan City

For those eager to explore more, an optional tour this afternoon will take you to two of Kathmandu's most significant cultural and religious sites.

Begin with a visit to Boudhanath Stupa, one of the largest stupas in the world and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Standing 36 metres tall, this awe-inspiring structure is a masterpiece of stupa design, its massive white dome crowned with the ever-watchful eyes of Buddha. Also known as Khasti, the area surrounding Boudhanath is home to over 45 Buddhist monasteries, making it a major centre for Tibetan Buddhism in Nepal.

Continue to Patan City, renowned for its incredible concentration of temples and palaces. At the heart of it all is Patan Durbar Square, where the stunning Krishna Mandir, a 17th-century stone temple, stands as a testament to the city's artistic heritage. Its intricate carvings depict legendary battles from the Ramayana and Mahabharata. Other highlights include the Tusha Hiti water spout, Sundari Chowk, Taleju Temple, and Keshav Narayan Chowk.

Wander through the narrow alleys to the Golden Temple (Hiranya Varna Mahavihar), a revered Buddhist monastery with exquisite gilded architecture. Before returning, you'll also have the chance to receive a blessing from the Living Goddess, Kumari. Current pricing is available in the Important Info section and at checkout.

After breakfast, depart Kathmandu and journey south to Chitwan National Park, one of Nepal's most treasured natural wonders.

Established in 1973, the park is home to an incredible array of wildlife, including the endangered one-horned rhinoceros, Bengal tigers, elephants, crocodiles, and over 500 species of birds. The region's conservation efforts date back even further, with parts of the park originally designated as a wildlife reserve in the 1950s.

Upon arrival, check in at your hotel and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure. This evening, experience the vibrant traditions of the local Tharu community with a cultural dance performance, offering a fascinating insight into their centuries-old way of life.

Please note: Today's travel is approximately 180 kilometres or 6 hours.

This morning, embark on a thrilling jungle safari, where you'll have the chance to spot incredible wildlife in their natural habitat. Keep an eye out for the one-horned rhinoceros, various species of deer, playful monkeys, and an array of exotic birds, including egrets and woodpeckers. If you're lucky, you may even glimpse the elusive Bengal tiger or a leopard lurking in the dense forest.

Chitwan is a paradise for bird lovers, home to over 500 species, including the critically endangered Bengal florican, the vulnerable lesser adjutant, and the striking grey-crowned prinia. You can also opt for a peaceful canoe ride along the Rapti River, where you may spot the rare Gharial crocodile, known for its long, slender snout, and the elusive Gangetic dolphin (optional activity, charges apply).

The afternoon is yours to relax or explore at your own pace. Enjoy tranquil surroundings, visit a nearby village, or unwind at the hotel after an adventurous morning. There are two optional activities for the day; however, only one can be taken as they run simultaneously.
