Petra is half-built, half-carved into rock and is surrounded by mountains riddled with passages and gorges. It's one of the world's most famous archaeological sites where ancient Eastern traditions blend with Hellenistic architecture.

Travel along the Siq (the main entrance), which is a natural passage between two mountains, leading to the most elaborate temple in Petra. Across from the theatre and overlooking the city centre, lies the Royal tombs on the eastern cliff. The lower part of Petra, where the Romans resided after 107 AD, has the ruins of Nabatean Temples still standing.

Afterwards drive towards the Wadi Rum Desert, a protected desert wilderness in southern Jordan. It features dramatic sandstone mountains including the many-domed Jebel Um Ishrin and natural arches such as Burdah Rock Bridge. Many prehistoric inscriptions and carvings line rocky caverns and steep chasms, such as Khazali Canyon. The natural watering hole of Lawrence's Spring is named after British soldier Lawrence of Arabia, who allegedly washed there.

Iris Dahabiya Nile Cruise (5-Star Sailboat)

With a maximum of 17 cabins, this Dahabiya Nile cruise offers the romance of the past with modern luxurious comfort and convenience. During your immersive Dahabiya cruise you'll visit small islands, local villages and archaeological sites that are often missed by the larger Nile cruises.
Life onboard a Dahabiya Nile cruise is a peaceful and idyllic experience. You can lie in a deck chair, read a book or watch children playing and women doing their washing. There's nothing better than an evening dining under a twinkling night sky by the light of a campfire. You are far away from the fancy-dress parties of the large cruisers. Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

Jordan

For ideal sightseeing conditions, the best time to visit Jordan is during the spring (March-May) and autumn (September to November) months. At these times of the year the temperatures are cool enough to spend your days exploring Jordan's iconic sites. During winter, there are sunny periods, mild during the day and a bit cold at night, from December to February, every now and then, cold air masses from the north can arrive here and cause snowfalls. Summer in Amman is hot and sunny, but the altitude tempers the heat; in fact, highs are usually around 33°C. However, there can also be scorching days, with peaks of 37/40 °C from May to September, and more likely in July and August. The record is 43.5°C.

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.
