Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Morocco

In May, Morocco's coastal cities of Casablanca and Tangier enjoy warm, pleasant spring weather. Daytime temperatures typically range from 22°C to 26°C, while nights are mild, averaging around 14°C to 17°C. The climate is generally dry and sunny, with low humidity and only occasional light rain. Both cities benefit from a cooling Atlantic breeze, which keeps temperatures comfortable despite the warmth. May is an ideal time to visit, with long daylight hours, blooming gardens, and vibrant city life without the intense heat of summer.

Spain

In May, the Spanish cities of Motril, Puerto Banús, Seville, Ferrol, Gijón, and Santander enjoy pleasantly warm spring weather, ideal for travel and sightseeing.

Motril and Puerto Banús, both on the southern coast, typically experience daytime temperatures between 22°C and 26°C, with mostly sunny skies and mild evenings around 14°C to 17°C. These areas begin to feel summery by late May, with very little rainfall.

Seville, located inland in southern Spain, is warmer, with daytime highs often reaching 28°C to 30°C, and lows around 14°C to 16°C. May marks the start of the city's hot season, though it's still manageable for outdoor activities.

On the northern coast, Ferrol, Gijón, and Santander are cooler and more temperate. Expect highs of 18°C to 22°C and lows around 11°C to 13°C. These cities see more cloud cover and occasional rain, but also enjoy crisp, fresh spring air and emerging greenery.

Overall, May is a fantastic time to visit all of these destinations, offering a balance of warmth, manageable crowds, and comfortable weather.

Portugal

In May, Lagos, Lisbon, and Figueira da Foz in Portugal enjoy mild to warm spring weather, making it a beautiful time to visit. Rainfall is minimal, and the sea begins to warm, though still a bit cool for swimming. Lisbon, Portugal's capital, experiences similar conditions, with average highs around 23°C to 26°C and lows near 14°C. The city enjoys long, sunny days with low humidity and only occasional light showers.

Figueira da Foz, located on the central Atlantic coast, is slightly cooler due to its ocean exposure, with temperatures ranging from 19°C to 23°C during the day and dropping to 12°C to 14°C at night. You can expect a mix of sunshine and a few cloudier days, but overall, the weather is pleasant and springlike.
