

Lisbon to Amsterdam Luxury Explorer

BELGIUM ● FRANCE ● NETHERLANDS ● PORTUGAL

The Offer

Embark on a 15-day European odyssey, including a 10-night Swan Hellenic cruise. Sailing from Lisbon to Amsterdam, you'll discover the vibrant cities and breathtaking coastlines of Portugal, Spain, France and Belgium.

Your magnificent journey begins with a two-night stay in Lisbon, a city of sun-drenched hills and wonders. You'll have time to perhaps explore its elegant streets, see Belem Tower and Comercio Square, ride the famous yellow trams and indulge in the national treat, pastel de nata (known in Australia as Portuguese custard tarts). Board your luxurious floating boutique hotel, the SH Diana and set sail for the stunning coast of Spain.

Aboard the SH Diana, you'll find a sophisticated and spacious environment designed for immersive exploration. Relax in the panoramic sauna, take a dip in the heated outdoor infinity pool, or work out in the state-of-the-art gym. The ship's main dining room, the Swan Restaurant, serves exquisite international cuisine and you'll find more casual fare at the Club Lounge.

You'll discover Portugal's longest beach at Figueira da Foz, uncover rich seafaring history in Ferrol, enjoy the green hills of Gijon and stroll through the medieval alleyways of Santander.

Sail to France's wine capital, Bordeaux, a city blending rich history with world-class gastronomy and elegant shopping. Next, you'll explore the maritime past of Cherbourg, home to the Art Deco transatlantic terminal, before soaking in the Belle Epoque charm and sandy beaches of Oostende in Belgium.

The grand finale is a two-night stay in the gorgeous Dutch city of Amsterdam. Glide along its picturesque canals, cross its hundreds of bridges and explore a treasure trove of art centres including the famous Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh Museum.

This incredible journey includes return international full-service flights, a 10 night cruise aboard Swan Hellenic's SH Diana, 29 meals, all while cruising, 4 nights of 5-star accommodation, 24 hour room service and more!

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Spain

In May, the Spanish cities of Motril, Puerto Banús, Seville, Ferrol, Gijón, and Santander enjoy pleasantly warm spring weather, ideal for travel and sightseeing.

Motril and Puerto Banús, both on the southern coast, typically experience daytime temperatures between 22°C and 26°C, with mostly sunny skies and mild evenings around 14°C to 17°C. These areas begin to feel summery by late May, with very little rainfall.

Seville, located inland in southern Spain, is warmer, with daytime highs often reaching 28°C to 30°C, and lows around 14°C to 16°C. May marks the start of the city's hot season, though it's still manageable for outdoor activities.

On the northern coast, Ferrol, Gijón, and Santander are cooler and more temperate. Expect highs of 18°C to 22°C and lows around 11°C to 13°C. These cities see more cloud cover and occasional rain, but also enjoy crisp, fresh spring air and emerging greenery.

Overall, May is a fantastic time to visit all of these destinations, offering a balance of warmth, manageable crowds, and comfortable weather.

Portugal

In May, Lagos, Lisbon, and Figueira da Foz in Portugal enjoy mild to warm spring weather, making it a beautiful time to visit. Lagos, in the Algarve region, typically sees daytime temperatures between 22°C and 25°C, with plenty of sunshine and mild evenings around 14°C to 16°C. Rainfall is minimal, and the sea begins to warm, though still a bit cool for swimming. Lisbon, Portugal's capital, experiences similar conditions, with average highs around 23°C to 26°C and lows near 14°C. The city enjoys long, sunny days with low humidity and only occasional light showers.

Figueira da Foz, located on the central Atlantic coast, is slightly cooler due to its ocean exposure, with temperatures ranging from 19°C to 23°C during the day and dropping to 12°C to 14°C at night. You can expect a mix of sunshine and a few cloudier days, but overall, the weather is pleasant and springlike.

May offers ideal conditions for exploring Portugal's coastlines, cities, and cultural landmarks before the peak summer crowds arrive.

France

In May, Bordeaux and Cherbourg in France enjoy mild to pleasantly warm spring weather, perfect for sightseeing and outdoor activities.

Bordeaux, in southwestern France, typically sees daytime temperatures ranging from 20°C to 24°C, with overnight lows around 11°C to 13°C. The city experiences plenty of sunshine in May, and while occasional light rain is possible, the overall climate is warm, dry, and ideal for exploring vineyards and historical sites. Cherbourg, located on the Normandy coast in northern France, is cooler and more maritime in climate. Daytime temperatures usually range from 15°C to 18°C, with nights around 9°C to 11°C. May brings a mix of sunny spells and light rain, with breezy conditions near the coast. Overall, May is a lovely time to visit both cities—Bordeaux offers warm and dry days, while Cherbourg is fresh and crisp with classic northern French charm.

Belgium

In May, Oostende (or Ostend) on Belgium's North Sea coast experiences mild spring weather. Daytime temperatures typically range from 14°C to 18°C, while nights can be cool, averaging around 8°C to 11°C. May brings longer daylight hours and increasing sunshine, though the region still sees occasional rain and coastal breezes. The sea remains quite cold, but the overall atmosphere is fresh and lively, with blooming parks and outdoor cafés starting to fill. It's a pleasant time to enjoy the seaside promenade before the peak summer crowds arrive.

Amsterdam

In May, Amsterdam enjoys mild and increasingly sunny spring weather. Daytime temperatures typically range from 15°C to 20°C, while nighttime lows average around 8°C to 11°C. Rain is still possible, with light showers occurring intermittently, but there are also plenty of bright, clear days—perfect for canal cruises and exploring the city by bike. Parks and gardens, including the famous tulip displays (especially early in the month), are in full bloom, and the overall atmosphere is lively as outdoor terraces begin to fill. May is a fantastic time to visit before summer crowds peak.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

FLIGHTS

Seat Selection & Frequent Flyer Points:

We do not arrange seat selection. It is essential to highlight that some airlines do not allow pre-selected seats. We strongly suggest you contact the airline directly with seating allocation requirements and/or arrive at the airport earlier to arrange your seating. While we do not add frequent flyer member details to bookings, you can do this directly with the airline once you have your flight information.

Dietary Requests

Meal options and availability differ between airlines and routes therefore not all dietary requests can be accommodated. If your flight includes meals we will select the most suitable option available based on the dietary requirements you have specified. All meal requests are subject to airline approval and are not guaranteed, therefore we recommend preparing for your flight by bringing appropriate food for yourself, as required.

Passport Validity:

Customers must provide valid passport details either at the time of purchase or no later than 90 days before the departure date. Failure to do so may result in the cancellation of the booking. Customers will be responsible for any costs and fees incurred in this instance.

CRUISE

Embarkation / Disembarkation:

- Begins approximately 2 hours after docking.
- Due to security reasons, all guests must be on board 2 hours before sailing.
- Itineraries are subject to change at any time without notice.
- Check your specific sailing for exact departure and arrival times. All times are local to the port.

Cruise Loyalty Discounts:

Please note: Travellers must contact the cruise line directly upon receiving their travel documents in order to request any membership benefits they may be entitled to.

Luggage:

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on tour. You must carry your own luggage from the vehicle to the hotel room and back to the vehicle. The driver will assist with the uploading and unloading of bags from the vehicle.

OTHER

Mobility:

If you require wheelchair access please contact our friendly sales and service team to inquire on your behalf.

Fitness Level Required:

Adventure (and spontaneity) create some of the best travel memories. Bear in mind, your home schedules and timings might not be adhered to on tour - it's all part of the fun!

A relaxed level of fitness will be required. Expect a comfortable pace of touring with a focus on leisure time and gentle activity. This may include city tours, the ability to walk up and down small flights of stairs and gentle slopes. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance. Please note: Some areas may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or mobility scooters, with personal walking sticks and other aids required should they be needed. Although some assistance may be available, every traveller should be self-reliant during all aspects of their travel. Please note: It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Yellow Fever:

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival.

You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Eu Entry/Exit System (EES)

From October 12, 2025, a new European Entry System (EES) replaces the current manual passport-stamping process for non-EU travelers. Upon arrival in the Schengen area, Australian and New Zealand passport holders will have their fingerprints recorded and a photograph taken. Their entry and exit dates will be electronically registered. No previous action is required, but please be aware of longer wait times at border entry. From 10 April 2026, the EES will be fully operational at all external border crossing points of all the European countries (Schengen area) using the system.

European Travel Information &

Authorisation System (ETIAS)

As an extension of the EES implementation introduced from 2025, ETIAS travel authorisation is a mandatory entry requirement for visa-exempt nationals travelling to any of these 30 European countries [link - <https://travel-europe.europa.eu/etias/about-etias/who-should-apply#european-countries-requiring-etias>], including Australian and New Zealand citizens, that will be introduced in 2026. We advise you to monitor smartraveller.com.au closer to your departure to ensure you are up to date on the requirements at the time of entry.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. For more information or advice visit <https://www.tripadeal.com.au/travel-insurance>

Supplier Fees

In the event the tour package you have purchased is unable to proceed, and/or a Travel Supplier is unable to fulfil the tour due to external circumstances (Limitation of Liability e.g. a Force Majeure event), there may be a fee or amount of money that is withheld by our Suppliers and is unrecoverable. This may be due to non-refundable airline tickets, cancellation penalties with cruise cabins or unrecoverable payments with our land/accommodation partners. If refunds are not available from Suppliers, we will endeavour to obtain a travel credit on the best terms available and communicate these outcomes to you. In the event we are unable to obtain a refund or travel service credit, or part thereof, this cost is passed on to the customer as a Supplier Fee.
