To immerse yourself in history, head to Manila's oldest neighbourhood of Intramuros which was founded in the 16th century. It's home to sights such as Fort Santiago, Casa Manila and San Agustin Church (entrances not included).

In the upscale financial centre of Makati, you'll find an array of bars, spas and restaurants. Make sure to stop at malls like Glorietta, the landscaped Greenbelt Park and the Ayala Museum which showcases archaeological artefacts and indigenous textiles. ### The Itinerary

Itinerary 1

Day 12 Keelung (Taipei), Taiwan

Arrive: 08:00 - Depart: 17:00

Keelung City's sheltered harbour and its location on Taiwan's north coast have meant that over the centuries, it has been ruled by the Spanish, Dutch and Chinese. Long a small outpost of the Chinese empire, the city began to grow in the 19th century when settlement from the mainland was encouraged. From 1895 to 1945, Taiwan was occupied by the Japanese. At the end of World War II, Taipei was handed over to the Republic of China, led by Chiang Kai-shek.

In the decades since, it has seen explosive growth but traditional temples and world-class museums still sit amid the skyscrapers. The modern metropolis also has top restaurants, food markets and upscale shopping.

The Taipei Metro makes it easy to explore the city while Taiwan's capital is just a half hour away by car or around 45 minutes by train.

Overnight: Holland America's Westerdam

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 13 Ishigaki Island, Japan

Arrive: 07:00 - Depart: 16:00

Signs of Okinawan culture can be subtle but are easier to pick out in more remote islands of the chain, like Ishigaki. Traditional buildings are a mixture of Chinese and Japanese influences. In the markets, you'll find fu chanpuru (an Okinawan stir fry dish) and whole-wheat soba, which the Japanese won't touch.

The few people left who speak Uchinaguchi are praying for a movement like the Hawaiian renaissance to bring the culture back and the tipping point is close.

A trip to Ishigaki now is to witness either the beginning or the end.

Overnight: Holland America's Westerdam

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 14 Naha, Japan

Arrive: 07:00 - Depart: 17:30

Naha, the capital of Japan's Okinawa Prefecture and its biggest city, also serves as the region's key political, economic and transportation hub. With a fascinating past as the capital of the Ryukyu Kingdom and a working port dating back to the 15th century, this city of 300,000 residents is both compelling and laid-back.

Because it was largely destroyed during World War II, there aren't many old buildings here. However, a few restored remains from the Ryukyu Kingdom era provide historic interest including Shuri Castle, the royal residence and its extraordinary gardens. Other legendary sites include the Royal Mausoleum (burial tombs set inside caves) and the Shurei Gate which appears on the 2,000-yen note.

Don't miss Kokusai Street with two kilometres of shops and the nearby Makishi Public Market which has dozens of food vendors hawking delicious treats. If you want to explore farther afield, Naha is the ideal jumping-off point for excursions to the rest of Okinawa.

It's often described as the San Francisco of Korea thanks to its hilly terrain and close-knit neighbourhoods. It offers a little of everything with fashionable boutiques, sandy beaches, hot springs and mountains dotted with temples.

Cultural highlights include the Gamcheon Cultural Village, the spectacular Haedong Yonggungsa Temple which is built into the side of a cliff and Art Street in Sinchang-dong.

Those who enjoy hiking can explore the famed cliffs of Taejongdae Park, while the white sand beaches at Gwangalli and Haeundae are ideal places to relax by the seashore.

Foodies will love Busan for its excellent restaurants and atmospheric markets, including the low-key Millak Hoe Town Market and Jagalchi Fish Market.

21-DAY CRUISE PACKAGE | HONG KONG, PHILIPPINES & JAPAN CRUISE

The Itinerary

Itinerary 2

Day 26 Yeosu, South Korea

Arrive: 08:00 - Depart: 17:00

Nestled on South Korea's captivating southern coast, Yeosu is a city where stunning ocean vistas meet rich history. You might choose to wander over to the charming Odongdo Island, famous for its vibrant camellia blossoms and a lighthouse offering breathtaking panoramic views.

For a touch of spiritual serenity, discover the ancient Hyangiram Hermitage, a Buddhist temple dramatically perched on a seaside cliff.

Whether you're soaking in the coastal scenery or uncovering centuries-old traditions, Yeosu offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and cultural discovery.

Overnight: Holland America's Westerdam

Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 27 Fukuoka (Hakata), Japan

Arrive: 08:00 - Depart: 21:00

This contemporary city has a population of 1.5 million and an array of impressive architecture by international architects including Rem Koolhaas, César Pelli and more. Modern developments like Canal City also lend the city a futuristic air, as does the striking 234-meter Fukuoka Tower, which is clad in mirrored glass and features an observation deck.

On the historical side, sites like the Kushida Shrine and the ruins of Fukuoka Castle offer traditional and cultural insights.

The pond in the centre of Ōhori, Fukuoka's largest park, was once part of Fukuoka Castle's moat. You'll also find gardens, a zoo, an amusement park and a car museum in Uminonakamichi Seaside Park.

Overnight: Holland America's Westerdam

Day 28 Scenic Cruising Kanmon Strait

The Kanmon Strait is a narrow channel separating Japan's main islands of Honshu and Kyushu. The channel has long been important to maritime transportation as it connects the Sea of Japan and the Inland Sea.

The battle between the U.S. and Japanese navies that presaged the Shimonoseki Campaign in 1863 took place here, and eventually led to Japan's opening up to Western powers. The cannons used during the campaign can today be seen near Shimonoseki's port, where you can also dine at gourmet restaurants serving local delicacies such as fugu (blowfish).

The port at Kitakyushu (Moji Port) is equally historic and attractive, serving as a gateway to Honshu and Kyushu for centuries as well as an important international trade hub since the late 19th century. Although more industrial than Shimonoseki, it has many Western-style buildings including the neo-Renaissance Mojiko Station.

A highlight of the Kanmon Strait is an annual fireworks display which is the largest in Japan with more than 13,000 rockets fired from both sides of the strait. The spectacle draws more than a million visitors every August.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Phillipines

February in the Philippines is at the heart of the dry season, making it an ideal time to visit. The weather is characterized by warm and pleasant conditions, with temperatures typically ranging from 24C to 31C. As one of the driest months, rainfall is minimal, and visitors can expect plenty of sunshine, clear skies, and calm seas, which are perfect for beach trips and water activities.

Taiwan

Taiwan experiences a mild and comfortable winter during February. In the north, including Taipei, temperatures are cool, ranging from 14C to 19C, while the south is slightly warmer. Although there can be occasional showers, the weather is generally very pleasant for sightseeing and outdoor activities like hiking. Towards the end of the month, the first cherry blossoms may even begin to bloom.

Japan

February is deep winter in Japan, offering a classic cold-weather experience with significant regional variation. Northern areas like Hokkaido are very cold, with temperatures often below freezing -6C to 0C and heavy snowfall ideal for winter sports. Central Japan, including Tokyo, is cold and dry, with temperatures between 2C and 10C. In contrast, southern Okinawa is much milder, and the end of the month can bring the first signs of spring with early plum blossoms.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

- If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Yellow Fever

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival. You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Sightseeing

closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts. Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

Philippines

You are permitted to enter the Philippines without a visa for a stay period of 30 days or less provided that you meet all of the requirements. Failure to meet entry requirements may result in you being denied entry to the Philippines and detained until the next available flight to your port of departure or Australia, at your own expense.
