

Cunard's Magnificent Mediterranean

FRANCE ● ITALY ● SPAIN

The Offer

Explore the legendary landmarks of the "Eternal City" and the sun-drenched shores of the Mediterranean on this stunning 13-day adventure. Bringing together the ancient history of Rome and Barcelona with the timeless poise of a Cunard cruise, this journey is perfectly crafted for those who enjoy world-class culture paired with a very British sense of refinement.

Your Italian chapter begins with two nights in Rome. Whether you're standing in the shadow of the Colosseum or making a wish at the Trevi Fountain, the city's 2,700-year legacy is yours to discover.

Board the Queen Elizabeth. A sophisticated sanctuary at sea, this ship is all about the finer details. Enjoy traditional afternoon tea served by white-gloved waiters and grand ballrooms that make every evening feel like an occasion.

Your journey through Itinerary 1 unfolds across azure waters, offering the opportunity to seek out the Renaissance treasures of Florence and Pisa from La Spezia, or wander the rustic, Napoleonic streets of Ajaccio. The highlights continue into Spain, docking in Palma de Mallorca and Valencia, where futuristic design meets medieval tradition.

The finale takes place in Barcelona, a city of golden beaches and Gaudi's surreal architectural wonders. It's a masterful blend of imperial icons and high-seas elegance, ensuring you return home with a suitcase full of memories and a taste for the good life.

This incredible adventure includes return international full-service flights, a 7-night cruise on board Cunard's Queen Elizabeth, 3 nights of 4-star accommodation, 22 meals, including all while cruising, and more.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Italy

From June to October, Italy experiences a transition from hot, dry summers to mild, pleasant autumns. During the peak summer months of July and August, inland cities like Rome and Florence are typically the hottest, with average highs reaching 30°C to 32°C, while coastal spots like Pisa, La Spezia, Genoa, and Sardinia benefit from sea breezes but still average highs between 26°C and 31°C. As the season shifts into September and October, temperatures become more comfortable; by October, average highs generally range from 20°C to 24°C in Sardinia and the central regions, dropping slightly to around 20°C in Genoa and La Spezia. Rainfall is minimal through August but increases noticeably by October, particularly in northern coastal cities like Genoa, which can see a peak in precipitation during that time.

Spain

From June to October, Spain's Mediterranean coast remains warm and sun-drenched, with temperatures peaking in mid-summer before cooling to a comfortable mildness. In Barcelona and Palma, average highs start around 25°C to 26°C in June, climbing to 28°C or 30°C in July and August, while Valencia often feels slightly warmer, frequently reaching 30°C during the peak summer months. As autumn approaches in September, temperatures across these cities stay invitingly high at around 25°C to 27°C, eventually dipping to more moderate highs of 21°C to 23°C by October. While summer is predominantly dry and clear, October marks the beginning of the rainier season for the region, particularly in Barcelona and Valencia, where occasional heavy showers refresh the landscape after the intense summer heat.

France

In Southern France and Corsica, the weather from June to October transitions from vibrant summer heat to a gentle autumnal warmth. During the peak summer months of July and August, Marseille and Corsica are consistently hot, with average highs reaching 28°C to 30°C, while the picturesque Villefranche-sur-Mer enjoys slightly milder but still balmy highs of around 26°C to 27°C. As the season moves into September, the heat softens to a comfortable 24°C to 26°C across the region, making it ideal for swimming as the sea remains warm. By October, the air becomes crisper with average highs dipping to between 19°C and 22°C, and while sunny days are still frequent, this month also brings a higher chance of the refreshing Mediterranean rains that mark the end of the dry season.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

A relaxed level of fitness will be required. Expect a comfortable pace of touring with a focus on leisure time and gentle activity. This may include city tours, the ability to walk up and down small flights of stairs and gentle slopes. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance. Please note: Some areas may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or mobility scooters, with personal walking sticks and other aids required should they be needed. Although some assistance may be available, every traveller should be self-reliant during all aspects of their travel.

Please note: It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Yellow Fever:

A valid international certificate of vaccination against Yellow Fever is required in many countries. You may need to present this on arrival at the airport or border crossing. Some countries will refuse entry if you are unable to present your certificate. It's also common for your home country to request a Yellow Fever certificate upon arrival.

You must check with your doctor well before leaving home about the Yellow Fever requirements for the countries you'll be visiting.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

Europe (Schengen Visa Countries)

A tourist visa is not required for Europe for stays up to 90 days if travelling on an Australian passport.

European Entry/Exit System (EES)

From October 12, 2025, a new European Entry System (EES) replaces the current manual passport-stamping process for non-EU travelers. Upon arrival in the Schengen area, Australian and New Zealand passport holders will have their fingerprints recorded and a photograph taken. Their entry and exit dates will be electronically registered. No previous action is required, but please be aware of longer wait times at border entry. From 10 April 2026, the EES will be fully operational at all external border crossing points of all the European countries (Schengen area) using the system.

European Travel Information & Authorisation System (ETIAS)

As an extension of the EES implementation introduced from 2025, ETIAS travel authorisation is a mandatory entry requirement for visa-exempt nationals travelling to any of these 30 European countries, including Australian and New Zealand citizens, that will be introduced in 2026. We advise you to monitor smartraveller.com.au closer to your departure to ensure you are up to date on the requirements at the time of entry.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. For more information or advice visit <https://www.tripadeal.com.au/travel-insurance>
