While Kotor's history is steeped in medieval lore, its past extends all the way back to both ancient Greek and Roman civilisations. An exact date to the city's origins is impossible to pinpoint, but with the 12th-14th centuries being widely accepted as the golden age of Kotor's development, this is probably a good starting place to fix your mind upon entering the city's renowned gates.

The city's various religious dwellings, such as the Roman Catholic Saint Tryphon (often said to be Kotor's most beautiful building), or the Roman Catholic Church Our Lady of the Rocks on an artificial island in the Bay of Kotor are just as fascinating as its

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

Europe

In June, these Mediterranean and Adriatic destinations enter a beautiful, warm summer phase characterized by long sunny days and very little rain. Athens is typically the warmest, with average highs around 29°C to 33°C, while the Greek island of Mykonos stays slightly fresher due to the seasonal Meltemi winds, averaging between 24°C and 27°C. Along the Balkan coast, Dubrovnik and Kotor offer similar climates with pleasant daytime highs ranging from 25°C to 28°C and evenings cooling down to a comfortable 18°C, making it perfect for exploring old stone cities. Sarandë, located in southern Albania, shares this inviting weather with highs usually hitting 28°C to 30°C and sea temperatures reaching around 23°C, ideal for the first swims of the season.
