Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

The Mediterranean region follows a fairly consistent pattern from May to October, starting with a mild spring and peaking in a dry, intense summer before cooling into a pleasant autumn.

May & June: This is the "shoulder season" sweet spot. Temperatures are comfortably warm, typically ranging from 20°C to 27°C. It is ideal for sightseeing without the heavy sweat of summer, though the sea is still quite brisk for swimming (around 18°C–20°C).

July & August: The peak of summer is consistently hot and dry. Most coastal regions across these four countries see daily highs between 28°C and 34°C, with inland areas and Southern Türkiye often spiking above 35°C. The sea reaches its most inviting temperatures, averaging 24°C to 26°C.

September & October: September remains summer-like, with highs still around 25°C to 30°C, but the humidity drops. By October, the air cools to a mild 18°C to 24°C. While there is a higher chance of occasional rain, the sea retains its summer warmth longer than the air, making it a great time for a late-season beach trip.

Regional Nuances

Türkiye and Southern Greece generally stay the warmest for the longest, with coastal Türkiye often reaching 25°C well into late October. Croatia and Northern Italy tend to be a few degrees cooler and more prone to refreshing breezes, particularly as autumn approaches in October, where evenings can drop toward 12°C.

Visas

European Union Entry/Exit System (EES)

From October 12, 2025, a new European Entry System (EES) replaced the manual passport-stamping process for non-EU travellers. Upon arrival in the Schengen area, Australian and New Zealand passport holders will have their fingerprints recorded and a photograph taken. Their entry and exit dates will be electronically registered. No previous action is required, but please be aware of longer wait times at border entry. From 10 April 2026, the EES will be fully operational at all external border crossing points of all the European countries (Schengen area) using the system.

European Travel Information & Authorisation System (ETIAS)

As an extension of the EES implementation introduced in 2025, ETIAS travel authorisation is a mandatory entry requirement for visa-exempt nationals travelling to any of these 30 European countries, including Australian and New Zealand citizens, that will be introduced in 2026. We advise you to monitor smartraveller.gov.au closer to your departure to ensure you are up to date on the requirements at the time of entry.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.
