Gratuities / Tipping

Land

Gratuities are not included in the package price for additional services. In the United States, it is customary to tip at restaurants, cafes, and diners, as well as for services provided by taxi drivers (excluding Uber), valet attendants, porters, and hotel housekeeping staff. A general guideline is 15%-20% of the total bill at dining venues, while tips for service staff are left to your personal discretion. Some sit-down restaurants may automatically add a gratuity to your bill—if this occurs, no additional tip is necessary unless you wish to recognise exceptional service.

Please note: Tipping is always at your discretion. However, it is considered a standard part of income for many service workers in the U.S., and it is not uncommon for staff to request a tip. There is no need to feel uncomfortable in these situations.

Cruise

Gratuities (tips) are included for the cruise staff's services throughout this tour's cruise component. If you have any questions regarding the gratuities on your cruise, please speak to the guest services staff onboard the ship.
