

Taiwan Explorer

TAIPEI ● TAROKO GORGE ● KAOHSIUNG

The Offer

Take the road less traveled and be rewarded with an unforgettable taste of Taiwan, where modern technology is countered by charming traditional villages and nostalgic railways. This 10-day round-island tour reveals stunning coastlines, mesmerising natural wonders and unforgettable moments at every step.

Meet us in Taipei, Taiwan's capital, where lush green hills surround a skyline dominated by the 509m-tall, bamboo-shaped Taipei 101 skyscraper. After a relaxing night, you'll embark on a scenic ride aboard the Pingxi Railroad, winding through leafy mountains to the village of Shifen, famous for its sky lanterns. You will also visit the nearby picturesque town of Jiufen, known for its narrow alleyways and quaint teahouses. Returning to Taipei, take a city tour to see the Chiang Kai-shek Memorial and learn about the region's history at the National Palace Museum.

Journey to Hualien City where the evening comes alive at the Dongdamen Night Market, home to amazing local street food. Take in the awe-inspiring marble cliffs and turquoise waters of Taroko National Park and cross the spine-tingling Liwu Valley suspension bridge 53 metres above the forests below (if you dare).

Travel along the remote east coast on the meticulously restored 'Breezy Blue' train, a beloved icon of the Taiwanese railroad, in operation since the 1950s. At Kaohsiung, visit the Lotus Pond, Dragon and Tiger Temple, and Qi Ming Tang Temple. From here, you will visit one of the best-preserved historical sites in Taiwan, Hinoki Village in Chiayi, a complex of beautifully preserved wooden buildings from when the Japanese ruled.

Over the next few days, you'll explore ancient forests in the Alishan National Scenic Area, take a relaxing cruise on Sun Moon Lake, Taiwan's largest lake and then wrap up your Taiwan odyssey enjoying Taipei at your leisure.

This package includes nine nights in 3 to 4-star hotels, 10 meals including daily breakfast and a Taiwanese lunch, and two iconic rail journeys.

Travel Planning: Flights aren't included in this package, so you have the flexibility to choose your own. See Important Information before booking.

10-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | TAIWAN EXPLORER

The Itinerary

Day 1 Meet us in Taipei, Taiwan

Upon arrival in Taipei, make your own way to your hotel accommodation.

Please note:

- You will receive information upon check-in regarding times for touring the following day.
- Hotel information will be confirmed in your travel documents sent 4-6 weeks prior to travel.

Overnight: The Place Taipei or similar

Meals included: None

Day 2 Taipei & Surroundings Day Tour

This morning, depart Taipei and travel to the nearby Pingxi district where you will enjoy a quick ride along the Pingxi Branch Line. This is a 12-kilometre stretch of narrow-gauge railroad that runs alongside the Keelung River. Taking a ride on the Pingxi Line is like taking a step back in time and is one of the most popular day trips from Taiwan.

Step of the train in the town of Shifen, which is a popular town for launching sky lanterns. Sky lanterns are a Taiwanese tradition and Pingxi district is one of the only places where you are allowed to launch them. The paper lanterns inscribed with one's hopes for the coming year are launched into the sky and the preferred place to launch them is right on the tracks which makes for some great people watching. Here you will have the opportunity to launch a sky lantern (4 travellers to one sky lantern).

Afterwards continue to the small mountainous village of Jiufen, made famous largely due to its similarity to the village in Spirited Away, arguably Hayao Miyazaki's most popular movie. Here you will enjoy time at leisure to explore Jiufen and have lunch (not included). We suggest you explore the picturesque Old Street which is a narrow alleyway lined up with small food stalls, tea houses, souvenir shops, and pottery stores.

The most picturesque tea house in Jiufen is A-Mei Teahouse. This multi-story teahouse is strategically located just a little off the main street, perched on top of a hill. From their balcony, you can admire the picturesque view in front of you, Keelung Mountain to the right and the Northern shores of Taiwan on the left.

Then continue back to Taipei and enjoy a quick stop at a duty free shop before continuing onwards to Taipei 101, which was the tallest building in the world from 2004 to 2010. Here you have time at leisure to explore the modern shopping centre and foodcourt, or alternatively take a trip up to the observatory at the top of the tower (not included, additional cost paid on tour).

Overnight: The Place Taipei or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 3 Taipei Sightseeing - Hualien - Hualien Night Market

Today head for some more sightseeing in Taipei before continuing onwards towards Hualien City on the rugged and beautiful East Coast of Taiwan.

The first stop in Taipei will be the National Palace of Museum which boasts the world's largest and most impressive collection of Chinese art and artefacts, dating back more than 7,000 years. After visiting Longshan Temple, which is one of the most famous temples in Taiwan. After driving past the Presidential Building before arriving at the Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall, a national monument and tourist attraction erected in memory of Chiang Kai-shek, former President of the Republic of China.

Continue onwards to Hualien City (approx 170km). On arrival, check into your hotel, where you may enjoy some time at leisure. Later this evening, take a short trip to the Hualien (Dongdamen) Night Market. Opened in 2015, the Hualien Night Market is the largest (and certainly most entertaining) market on the East Coast of Taiwan. Also known as the Dongdamen Night Market, the sprawling wide-laned marketplace is a must-visit experience when spending an evening in Hualien. With over 400 vendors at the night market, the amount of food on offer is incredible. And it isn't just Taiwanese food either; you can find items from mainland China, America, Thailand, Japan and numerous other regions as well. Due to the enormous amount of food on offer and the variety you can sample, it is an easy place to get a unique, inexpensive dinner (not included).

Overnight: Hualien Holiday Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Hualien - Taroko National Park - Shitiping - Taitung City

Today, head out for an exciting journey into Taiwan's most famous National Park. Taroko National Park is a natural wonderland nestled in the heart of Taiwan. This enchanting destination offers a mesmerising fusion of awe-inspiring marble cliffs, verdant forests and meandering turquoise rivers. Here you will enjoy the opportunity to explore majestic gorges, ancient shrines and cascading waterfalls.

Afterwards, enjoy a local lunch and then continue onwards to Shitiping on the coast, where you will find a huge, well-developed sea erosion terrace. The marine bench, raised coral reefs, sea ditches, and sea cliffs can be easily spotted, among which the pothole landscape is the best in Taiwan.

Finish the day in Taitung City on the south East Coast of Taiwan, where you will check in for an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Inn by the Village or similar
Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch

Day 5 Taitung - Brown Boulevard - Fangliao - Kaohsiung

This morning visit Brown Boulevard which is a beautiful stretch of pedestrian-only road located between the rice paddies and in the shadow of the surrounding mountains on the outskirts of the lovely town of Chishang. The area is famous for its quintessential East Rift Valley scenery which made it the perfect backdrop to an iconic Taiwanese advert for Brown Coffee.

Here you can choose to rent a regular bike or an e-bike or just walk on foot along the road to soak up the scenery and country air and capture some great photos. During autumn, the harvest season, the paddies will turn golden brown creating even more breathtaking scenery.

Afterwards transfer to Jinlun train station and upon arrival at the train station, board the iconic 'Breezy Blue' train. Breezy Blue is a 2021 refurbished train from the 1950s that glides along the southern coast of Taiwan, passing by many forgotten stations. The "romantic blue" train evokes nostalgic memories for the locals who commuted to work and school on the blue diesel-powered train in the past. Serious work and research were done to ensure that travellers can enjoy the most authentic train experience. Everything from the exterior colours of the train to the interior setup was refurbished to recreate the nostalgic train experience. One of the highlights of the train ride is the open windows as you can feel the breeze as the train chugs through the island along the beautiful south coast, taking in the beautiful ocean and mountain views the whole way.

The train terminates at Fangliao Station, where you will be met and transferred to the nearby city of Kaohsiung.

Kaohsiung is a massive port city in southern Taiwan. It's home to many skyscrapers, such as the 248m-tall Tuntex Sky Tower, and is known for its diversity of parks. Its focal point is the Love River, with walking paths and cafes along its banks and cruise boats navigating its waters. Shopping options range from high-end malls to the Liuhe and Ruifeng night markets.

Overnight: Holiday Inn Express Kaohsiung Love River, by IHG or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 6 Kaohsiung Half-Day Tour - Chiayi

This morning, head out on a half-day sightseeing tour of Kaohsiung, where you will visit the Lotus Pond, Dragon and Tiger Pagodas and Qi Ming Tang temple.

Afterwards, travel onward to the nearby city of Chiayi (approximately 2 hour drive) where you will check into your hotel for an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Holiday Inn Express Chiayi, by IHG or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Chiayi - Alishan - Chiayi

This morning, after breakfast, you will visit the Hinoki Village.

Hinoki Village is a large-scale Japanese-style wooden historical building complex and one of the key attractions in Chiayi City. After years of restoration and planning, the 28 cypress houses carrying historical memories, some of which are used as cafes, toy museums, or various cultural and creative shops, have injected new life into the cladding of historic sites, allowing the old culture to be preserved and new stories continue to stack.

Afterwards, continue into the mountains to the famous Alishan National Scenic Area. Here you can explore the beautiful natural surroundings, including lush forests, ancient trees, and picturesque walking trails. On some days, the clouds are so dense and thick that the mountaintops appear like islands on the cloud ocean. Alishan is also famous for its high mountain Oolong tea, so on the way back to Chiayi, you will visit a local tea shop and enjoy a tea ceremony.

Finish the day back in Chiayi, where you will enjoy an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Holiday Inn Express Chiayi, by IHG or similar

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Chiayi - Sun Moon Lake - Taipei

Today depart Chiayi and travel to Sun Moon Lake, which is the largest natural lake in Taiwan. Here you will find a vista of rolling hills and mountains with the beautiful calm lake in front of it.

Enjoy lunch (not included) before heading out on a cruise on this beautiful mountain lake. Afterwards, visit Ci'en Pagoda, which is 46 metres tall, bringing its top to an even 1,000 metres above sea

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES
Taipei, the capital city of Taiwan, experiences a humid subtropical climate with distinct seasons throughout the year.

Spring (March to May)

Temperature: Average highs range from 20°C to 25°C (68°F to 77°F), while lows range from 15°C to 18°C (59°F to 64°F). Spring in Taipei is characterized by relatively mild and pleasant weather. It's a popular time for tourists due to the comfortable temperatures and blooming flowers.

Summer (June to August)

Temperature: Average highs range from 30°C to 34°C (86°F to 93°F), while lows hover around 25°C (77°F). Summer in Taipei is hot and humid, with occasional heavy rainfall due to the monsoon season. Typhoons can also affect the region during this time, bringing heavy rain and strong winds.

Autumn (September to November)

Temperature: Average highs range from 26°C to 30°C (79°F to 86°F), while lows range from 21°C to 24°C (70°F to 75°F). Autumn is considered one of the best times to visit Taipei. The weather becomes cooler and more comfortable, and the city is often blessed with clear skies.

Winter (December to February)

Temperature: Average highs range from 18°C to 20°C (64°F to 68°F), while lows range from 12°C to 14°C (54°F to 57°F). Winter in Taipei is relatively mild compared to many other places, but it can feel chilly due to the high humidity. It's the rainy season, but there can also be periods of sunshine.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

COACH TOUR

Meals:

For meals not included, the tour leader (when available) will offer assistance with reservations, suggestions and directions to local restaurants. It is your responsibility to notify us of any dietary requests/requirements.

Important Information

Please note: We will do our best to meet your requests/requirements; however, we cannot guarantee that we will always be able to.

Luggage:

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on tour. You must carry your own luggage from the vehicle to the hotel room and back to the vehicle. The driver will assist with the uploading and unloading of bags from the vehicle.

OTHER

Mobility:

If you require wheelchair access please contact our friendly sales and service team to inquire on your behalf.

Fitness Level Required:

Adventure (and spontaneity) create some of the best travel memories. Bear in mind, your home schedules and timings might not be adhered to on tour - it's all part of the fun!

A leisurely level of fitness will be required. Leisurely is described as Light walking, including up multiple stairs, and occasional hiking, may involve uneven surfaces. Able to travel unassisted and get on and off vehicles and small boats. Suitable for most fitness levels and mobility.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our Terms and Conditions regarding shopping for further information.

Visas

Taiwan has restored the visa-exempt entry scheme for nationals of designated countries, including Australia. Please see Taiwan's Bureau of Consular Affairs website for the visa-exempt entry requirements and restrictions.

You won't need a visa for Taiwan if you meet all these conditions:

- You'll only stay for up to 90 days
- You're visiting for tourism or business
- You have a confirmed return or onward air ticket
- Your passport is valid for at least 6 months from the date of your entry
- You're not travelling on an emergency passport

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules may have changed since Covid-19. Some countries and airlines may require you to obtain an additional visa before arrival. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination you're entering.

Please note:

- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.

- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. For more information or advice visit <https://www.tripadeal.com.au/travel-insurance>
