

Magic of Morocco for 2

MARRAKECH ● CASABLANCA ● FES

The Offer

Get ready to rock the kasbah as you head into the heart of Morocco on a 10-day journey that will take you through the Atlas Mountains to desert Bedouin camps and to lush oases.

Meet us in Casablanca, the famed city that has been immortalised in classic films, most notably 1942's Casablanca, starring Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman. Explore the historic city and its impressive Hassan II Mosque, which looks out over the Atlantic Ocean. Discover the imperial city of Meknes and step into the medieval medina of Fes and enter a world of exotic sultans' palaces, inspiring mosques and centuries-old ramparts.

Drive through the High Atlas Mountains, passing flourishing date palms, fortified villages and Berber farming communities. Enjoy an unforgettable stay in a nomadic camp in the desert, where you'll share traditional tea, hear regional folk music, and sample local flavours by the campfire, before riding through the dunes on a 4x4 safari.

Other highlights along the way include driving the road of a Thousand Kasbahs past stunning oasis after oasis, visiting Ouarzazate, the 'Berber Hollywood' where movies like 2000's Gladiator were filmed, and wandering through the exotic stalls and souks of Marrakech. It's a place that is ancient, exotic, and always surprising.

This 10-day tour of exotic Morocco includes 9 nights of accommodation, 11 meals (including 2 traditional Bedouin camp dinners), a 4x4 dune safari and more!

Want more? A 12-day extended itinerary is ready to take you to the 'Pearl of Morocco', the coastal city of Essaouira.

Travel Planning: Return international airfares aren't included in this package, so you have the flexibility to choose your own. See Important Information before booking.

10-DAY TOUR PACKAGE | MAGIC OF MOROCCO FOR 2

The Itinerary

Itinerary 1

Day 1 Meet us in Casablanca, Morocco

Meet us in beautiful Casablanca. Make your own way to your accommodation to enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

Please note:

- You will receive information upon check-in regarding times for touring the following day.
- Hotel information will be confirmed in your travel documents sent 4-6 weeks prior to travel.

Overnight: Oum Palace or similar, Casablanca

Meals included: None

Day 2 Casablanca - Rabat - Fes

Your adventure will begin in bustling Casablanca, the economic capital of the country, with its beautiful palm trees, lined paths and the Atlantic Ocean over the horizon. This 290-kilometre day will take you to see the beautiful Ain Diab Corniche, the scenic promenade bordering the western seafront of Casablanca and a cluster of stylish hotels, restaurants and beach resorts.

You'll then visit the Hassan II Mosque, to enjoy a guided tour of an important religious and cultural site built on the sea and dominated by its 210-metre-high minaret. It is the largest mosque in Morocco and the third largest mosque in the world. It is a breathtaking sight, standing on a promontory looking out to the Atlantic Ocean, which can be seen through a gigantic glass floor.

Afterwards travel to Fes, via Rabat, boasting a fascinating historical centre, filled with splendid sultans' palaces, inspiring mosques and centuries-old ramparts. Enjoy a guided tour through the beautiful historical centre. Discover the Royal Palace and tour through the old town to the Hassan Tower, the magnificent mausoleum of Mohammed V and Kasbah of the Oudayas with its dreamlike Andalusian Garden.

Drive towards Fes and stop in Meknes, a city known for its imperial past: the Sultan Moulay Ismail made it the capital in the 17th century and the city still includes splendid historical buildings of that time, including the fascinating gate Bab Mansour, the Moulay Ismail Mausoleum and Place el Hedim.

In the late afternoon arrive at Fes, one of the oldest of the imperial cities. It has a fascinating history and has played an important part in Moroccan trade, culture, religion and politics. The panoramic views of Fes El Bali (the old city), seen from the North Borj (tower), are very useful to help you orientate yourself for when you are in the narrow alleyways.

Overnight: Hotel L'Escale or similar, Fes

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 3 Fes Full-Day Sightseeing Tour

Today enjoy a sightseeing tour of Fes.

Begin the day in the oldest working medina in the world, that many refer to as a 'living museum'. Fes has many mosques and madrasas (theological colleges), including the Ninth Century-founded Karaouine University. See wonderful mosaics and carved woodwork in Medersa Bou Inania, a group of buildings from the fourteenth century, which also include an elegant minaret overlooking Talaa Kebira.

Visit the famous medina, which is one of the largest in the world. In its immense warren of souks, thousands of artisans sit in their tiny shops opening onto the narrow alleyways. It's a totally absorbing and unique experience. The tour will then continue to the Jewish District (Mellah), the Royal Palace and a panoramic viewpoint over the medina.

Continue the tour admiring the Islamic Architecture, UNESCO World Heritage Sites and historic monuments before heading back to the hotel.

Overnight: Hotel L'Escaleur similar, Fes
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Fes - Merzouga

This morning, head south, climbing steadily into the dramatic landscapes of the Middle Atlas range through a magnificent cedar forest, with the possibility to see wild monkeys along the way. Drive towards the towns of Immouzer and Ifrane passing near the small mountain village of Azrou, which translates to 'the rock' in the Berber tongue. This is the land of the fiercely independent Berbers, the Lords of the Atlas, whose traditions and ways still hold influence here in their mountain strongholds far away from the cities below.

After crossing the High Atlas at Tizi N'Tairhem camel pass, continue via the Gorge du Ziz to Er Rachidia and into the Ziz Valley, dotted with palm trees, fortified villages and Berber farming communities. Passing through Erfoud town, known for fossils and the quality of its dates, the journey continues through arid desert plains that lead to Merzouga at the feet of the Erg Chebi dunes.

Today you'll travel approximately 460 kilometres.

Overnight: Hotel Ksar Merzouga or similar, Merzouga (Desert Experience)
Meals included: Breakfast; Dinner

Day 5 Merzouga - Erg Chebbi, Sahara Desert

Today, explore the dunes in a four-wheel-drive vehicle and visit a nomad family to enjoy teatime in their tents. You will taste a delicious tea, witness their daily life, hear their history and share with them some great moments.

Afterward, you'll be driven to the small village of Khamlia, where you'll visit a music house and witness a traditional Gnawa music performance, before enjoying time in the village for lunch (not included). In the afternoon, trek or camel ride from dune to dune and discover the breathtaking scenery. The sensation of being surrounded by endless desert is incredibly calming and the silence is overwhelming.

Upon arrival to the bedouin camp, walk along the rim of the sand dunes as the sun begins to set. Later that evening, tuck into a traditional meal followed by music and dancing by the campfire.

Day 6 Merzouga - Dades Valley - Ouarzazate

Today, early risers may be rewarded with a mesmerising sunrise. Following breakfast, a four-wheel-drive vehicle will take you back to Merzouga before the tour continues towards Boumalne Dades. Along the way, enjoy a stop at Rissani market, then head towards the city of Tinejdad and visit the Berber Museum of Khorbat. Opened in 2002, the Oasis Museum occupies a group of three restored houses inside the Ksar El Khorbat Oujdid. The museum offers antiquities and objects of traditional use, explaining colour photographs, historic photographs, maps and sketches.

Afterwards, enjoy a tea inside the kasbah, then continue to the marvellous Todgha (Todra) Gorge, its rich ochre and green colours making it one of the most beautiful landmarks in southern Morocco. This lush, green oasis runs along a deep valley of Berber villages.

Take a walk among the palm groves and gorge, then follow the road of a Thousand Kasbahs, where each of the oasis towns boast their own distinctive character. The mud and straw structures become more ornate as you progress through the marvellous Dades Valley, then the beautiful Valley of Roses, famous for its beautiful rose gardens and adobe villages.

Arrive at 'the door of the desert', Ouarzazate, the 'Berber Hollywood', in the late afternoon.

Overnight: Hotel Amlal or similar, Ouarzazate
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Ouarzazate – Ait Benhaddou – Marrakech

This morning visit Ait Benhaddou, a UNESCO World Heritage site used as a backdrop for Hollywood blockbusters, like Lawrence of Arabia, The Last Temptation of Christ and Gladiator. It was once one of the important fortress strongholds on the old Salt Road Caravan Routes, where traders brought slaves, gold, ivory and salt from sub-Saharan Africa to Marrakech and beyond.

Continue along the Ounila Valley, with its small Berber villages built down the cliffs. Stop at Telouet to discover the Glaoui Palace and Telouet Kasbah. Continue through the spectacular, snow-covered High Atlas Mountains via the highest pass in Morocco, Tizi N' Tichka, located 2,260 metres above sea level.

Arrive at Marrakech in the late afternoon after driving approximately 200 kilometres.

Overnight: Dellarosa Boutique Hotel or similar, Marrakech
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Marrakech City Tour

After breakfast, enjoy a half-day guided tour of the Red City. Like many North African towns, Marrakech is divided into two distinct parts, the Gueliz (the modern French-built city) and the Medina (the Old City).

Start by the Koutoubia Mosque, the largest mosque in Marrakech, famed for its minaret, which has inspired buildings like the Hassan Tower of Rabat. Continue on to Bahia Palace and museum. The building captures the essence of both Islamic and Moroccan styles, and the Merdersa Ben Youssef, which is a jewel of Moroccan architecture.

Other Important Information

TOUR GUIDE VS. TOUR LEADER

Tour Guide:

Often locals with intimate knowledge of an area, its culture, and history. Their role entails providing commentary, routing the tour, and seeing that people have a good time. They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour. The guide meets the group at the required place and leaves it at the end of the tour; they do not travel with the group.

Tour Leader:

An experienced person tasked with ensuring the smooth operation of tours, as well as providing practical support to passengers throughout the whole trip. Their role primarily includes assisting with accommodation, transportation between locations, and communication with tour guides at each stop. A tour leader may provide general guidance around a city or village and offer information on the place visited on the bus. However, they are not required to have specific art, architecture, or historical knowledge. They are not allowed to provide a guided tour or commentary of a city/village/attraction once there and, if caught doing so, can be fined.

Please note: Tour leaders/guides are not a standard inclusion in all travel offers. Tour leaders/guides will only be made available when required to enhance the experience of the destination featured.

CLIMATE & AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

Morocco

Morocco's climate is very diverse, varying with the season and region. The country is mostly dry with high temperatures in summer (June - August) and a cooler climate in the mountains. In spring and Autumn (September - November and March - May), the cities are warm to hot (maximum daytime temperatures around 25 - 30°C) with pleasantly cool nights. In the desert, the sun is strong and the nights can be cold. In the mountains, the air is cool and nights are cold. In winter January and February the temperature goes from 20°C in the daytime to 9°C at night.

Weather

We always suggest referring to an online source for the most up-to-date weather information for your destination/s.

COACH TOUR

Meals:

For meals not included, the tour leader (when available) will offer assistance with reservations, suggestions and directions to local restaurants. It is your responsibility to notify us of any dietary requests/requirements.

Please note: We will do our best to meet your requests/requirements; however, we cannot guarantee that we will always be able to.

Luggage:

You will be responsible for all your personal belongings whilst on tour. You must carry your own luggage from the vehicle to the hotel room and back to the vehicle. The driver will assist with the uploading and unloading of bags from the vehicle.

OTHER

Mobility:

If you require wheelchair access please contact our friendly sales and service team

Important Information

to inquire on your behalf.

Fitness Level Required:

Adventure (and spontaneity) create some of the best travel memories. Bear in mind, your home schedules and timings might not be adhered to on tour - it's all part of the fun!

A Moderate level of fitness will be required.

Expect a moderate pace of touring with a focus on guided tours that may include full days with extended activity, guided city tours or nature walks. You will require a general level of fitness for unassisted navigation of stairs and inclines, longer distances with possible periods of standing when visiting sites, walking on sloping, uneven ground or elevations. You will be responsible for your own luggage and have the ability to board all modes of transport without assistance. Please note: Many areas may be inaccessible to wheelchairs or mobility scooters, where the unassisted use of personal walking sticks and other aids may be required.

Please note: It is expected that every traveller must be self-reliant and able to undertake all aspects of their own travel. Please speak to your booking agent about your personal circumstances and any assistance requirements to ensure this tour is right for you.

Please note: If you have any concerns, please consult your healthcare provider prior to purchase/travel.

Sightseeing:

Please note: If entry to a site is affected by changes in operating hours or public holiday closures, your itinerary, where possible, may be adjusted, or a similar activity will be offered in its place (subject to availability).

Shopping:

Shopping overseas can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when there is a language barrier. Please be very cautious when foreign currencies and prices are involved. If paying by credit card, please pay close attention to the amount you are being charged and keep all your receipts.

Do not make any purchases you are not comfortable with or feel pressured into. If you are uncertain or need assistance with the language barrier, please seek assistance from your Tour Guide/Leader. Please refer to our regarding shopping for further information.

Terms and Conditions

Visas

A tourist visa for Morocco is not required for stays up to 90 days if travelling on an Australian passport.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.

Travel Insurance

Embarking on your next trip is exciting, and while you hope the unexpected does not happen, it is best to be prepared. We strongly recommend you take out travel insurance when making your booking. Whether it's a potential medical emergency, a flight cancellation, a delayed suitcase, or an unforeseen event, it's important to ensure you're adequately protected. For more information or advice visit <https://www.tripadeal.com.au/travel-insurance>

Schedule Of Fees

Voluntary Changes

This includes booking changes requested by you, including but not limited to those changes requiring an airline ticket or a Purchase Confirmation reissue.

- Changes - $100 per booking and any additional charges applied by the airline/cruise company/accommodation/other travel providers.

Name Changes Due To Passenger Error

- If the incorrect name has been provided, charges of $100 per booking and any additional charges applied by the airline/cruise company/accommodation/other travel providers.

Supplier Fees

In the event the tour package you have purchased is unable to proceed, and/or a Travel Supplier is unable to fulfil the tour due to external circumstances (Limitation of Liability e.g. a Force Majeure event), there may be a fee or amount of money that is withheld by our Suppliers and is unrecoverable. This may be due to non-refundable airline tickets, cancellation penalties with cruise cabins or unrecoverable payments with our land/accommodation partners. If refunds are not available from Suppliers, we will endeavour to obtain a travel credit on the best terms available and communicate these outcomes to you. In the event we are unable to obtain a refund or travel service credit, or part thereof, this cost is passed on to the customer as a Supplier Fee.
