Your options here are pretty much limitless.

The Itinerary

Day 13 Benoa (Denpasar), Bali, Indonesia (Overnight)
Arrive: 07:00 - Overnight

Indonesia is made up of more than 13,000 islands, but even with all that competition, Bali manages to stand out. Beautiful temples and shrines of all sizes are spread across the island, tucked down narrow alleyways, hidden within the jungle or serenely presiding over scenic locations, like the dramatic Pura Tanah Lot atop a rock formation just off Bali's western coast. Your ship docks here overnight so you can explore more of this destination.

Overnight: Holland America's Volendam
Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 14 Benoa (Denpasar), Bali, Indonesia
Depart: 16:00

Enjoy a second day at leisure in Bali. Bali is well known for its arts—traditional music and dance, painting, wood and stone carvings, silver jewellery and ikat and batik textiles.

The island's artistic centre is the village of Ubud, and its art markets and boutiques carry beautiful Balinese pieces to take home. When it comes to dining, whether you're craving a burrito or satay, you can find a restaurant that serves it. Don't leave the island, however, without sampling Balinese cuisine.

Local cooking, which reflects Chinese and Indian influences, uses blends of aromatic spices to season grilled meats (though not beef—Bali is an island of Hindu culture in mostly Muslim Indonesia), fresh seafood, rice and vegetables with delicious results.

Overnight: Holland America's Volendam
Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

Day 15 Surabaya, Indonesia
Arrive: 10:00 - Depart: 18:00

Indonesia's second-largest city and Java's capital, Surabaya is known as the City of Heroes thanks to the important role it played in capturing international attention during the country's revolution in the 1940s. And that independent spirit is still palpable among the metropolis's internationally diverse population of nearly three million people.

Surabaya is home to Indonesia's only synagogue as well as the largest mosque in East Java. And colonial-era buildings sit just a short stroll from glitzy new shopping centers. Visitors have much to experience, whether taking in the extensive artifacts in the Museum Mpu Tantular, seeing where Indonesia's clove cigarettes got their beginnings at the House of Sampoerna or venturing into the city's green lung with a boat ride through the mangrove forests of Wonorejo. You'll feel transported to a Middle Eastern bazaar at the Pasar Ampel, where the vendors hawk spices, sticky sweet dates and imported carpets. And a visit to Kenjeran Beach, right in the city, offers the chance to spot fishermen showcasing their fresh catch or take in views of one of Indonesia's longest bridges.

Overnight: Holland America's Volendam
Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

The Itinerary

Day 16 Semarang, Java, Indonesia
Arrive: 08:00 - Depart: 19:00

For most visitors, the biggest thrill about arriving in Semarang is the chance to take a day trip to Borobudur, the Buddhist temple and UNESCO World Heritage Site that dates to the 8th and 9th centuries. But there's plenty to keep you busy in and around the city itself, too. Home to over one million people, Semarang occupies a strategic location on Java's north coast and is among Southeast Asia's most interesting ports.

The city's colourful patchwork of colonial architecture, Chinese temples and striking mosques tells the story of the diverse cultures that wrote Semarang's history and speaks of its present, too. Spend some time strolling the atmospheric Outstadt, the old Dutch quarter. Lined with old Dutch warehouses and town houses, this neighborhood once held its own with Surabaya and Jakarta as one of Dutch Indonesia's most vital trading ports.

Today, almost a third of the city's population is Chinese; you'll find some excellent Chinese food around town as well as important historical sites like Gedung Batu—the city's oldest Chinese temple complex on the outskirts of town—which is well worth a visit.

Day 20 Singapore - Day at Leisure
Enjoy a day at leisure in Singapore.

City-states are rare in the present day - and none are quite like Singapore. In the 20th century, the Southeast Asian nation hurtled itself into the modern world, and it continues to expand its state-of-the-art transportation system and build its edgy skyline. Yet Singapore's urban plan wisely maintained its intimate neighbourhoods, many with streets lined with colourful shophouses (a type of building unique to parts of Asia, with businesses located on their ground floors and residences above).

The Itinerary

Add the city's mix of ethnic groups - mainly Malays, Chinese and Indians - and you get a vibrant cultural scene that attracts a cosmopolitan, international community.

Singapore's food scene - which is arguably the world's most dynamic and runs the gamut from beloved street hawkers to Michelin-starred venues - would merit a trip alone, as would its never-ending shopping options.

The city is also packed with world-class museums, many designed by celebrated architects, and it hosts many major international events, such as the Formula One Grand Prix. Yet only about half of the 720-square-kilometre island is developed, which leaves plenty of room for parks and open spaces such as the Bukit Timah Nature Reserve, where an old-growth forest still thrives.

Overnight: Copthorne King's Hotel or similar, Singapore
Meals included: None

Day 21 Singapore - Sydney

At the appropriate time, make your own way to the airport for your flight home.

Optional Upgrade: Private Vehicle Transfer - Hotel to Airport

Add a private vehicle transfer from your hotel to the airport. Meet your driver at your hotel and be transferred to the airport, ready to check in for your flight. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Please note: This transfer cannot be booked when a stay behind is arranged.

Please Note:

- Due to flight schedules, some flights may arrive home on Day 22.
- Flights are not guaranteed to be direct from Singapore to your end destination.

As of 1 September 2025 passengers must complete the All Indonesia Arrival Card. This is free of charge and can be completed online within 72 hours of your departure date. This is in addition to the e-VOA and the Bali Tourism Levy.

e-VOA

A tourist visa will be issued upon arrival if staying less than 30 days if travelling on an Australian passport. A visa fee of IDR 500,000 (approximately AUD $50, subject to change) and it is best to have this amount in cash upon arrival to ensure smooth entry. To avoid the queues at the airport, you can apply in advance (no later than 48 hours prior to travelling to Indonesia). You can apply for an e-Visa on Arrival (e-VOA). Check the e-VOA requirements from Indonesian Immigration before applying.

Bali Tourism Levy

The Bali Provincial Government has introduced a new tourist levy of IDR 150,000 per person to foreign tourists entering Bali. The tourist levy is separate from the e-Visa on Arrival or the Visa on Arrival. Cashless payments can be made online prior to travel or on arrival at designated payment counters at Bali's airport and seaport. Exemption from payment of the levy applies to transit passengers and certain visa holders. See the Bali Provincial Government's official website.

Important:

- Please start arranging your visa three weeks before departure to account for any delays due to consulate operating hours.
- Visa rules are subject to change. Please check with the nearest embassy, consulate or immigration department of the destination/s you are visiting once you receive your travel documentation to ensure you have the most up to date information.
- It is your responsibility to be travel-ready and ensure that you are aware and comply with any destination or travel requirements, including the validity of all required travel documents.
- Passengers who are not Australian citizens must also check with the respective consulate or visa agency to determine what their visa requirements are and what personal identification is required.
- It is also important to note that some areas of employment, such as journalism, government authorities and charity organisations, may have additional restrictions in applying for visas. This may, in turn, affect the type of application required.
