The morning begins with a Guluyambi Cultural Cruise along the East Alligator River, which forms the natural boundary between Kakadu National Park and Arnhem Land. Led by a First Nations guide, this immersive experience offers a rare opportunity to step ashore and walk on Arnhem Land, gaining a deeper understanding of ancient creation stories, traditional customs, bush survival techniques and the enduring connection to Country. Along the way, keep watch for abundant birdlife and the region's iconic saltwater crocodiles in their natural habitat.

Note: During April and early May, the Guluyambi Cultural Cruise is replaced with the Yellow Water Billabong Cruise due to seasonal conditions.

Later, the tour explores the remarkable Burrungkuy region (also known as Nourlangie), a site rich with Aboriginal rock art and spiritual significance. A guided walk includes stops at Kunwarddewardde Lookout, Anbangbang Billabong and Nawurlandja Lookout, offering panoramic views over Kakadu's diverse landscapes.

For those looking for further adventure, there is the option to extend the walk to the Naguluwurr Art Site, home to some of the park's oldest and most significant rock art. As the journey continues through these breathtaking escarpments, billabongs and woodlands, gain insight into the ancestral beings and creation stories embedded in the land and its art stories that continue to guide and connect the Bininj/Mungguy people to Country.

After another spectacular Kakadu sunset, return to the Mercure Kakadu Crocodile Hotel. Enjoy a relaxed evening at leisure, with the option to dine at Manjmukmuk Restaurant & Bar (not included, charges apply), renowned for showcasing local Top End flavours.

They are a licensed, qualified expert who supplies specific information on the history, art, architecture and culture of the city/village/attraction where they are guiding the tour.
