The Itinerary

Day 1 Australia (or New Zealand) - Bangkok, Thailand

Today depart Australia for Bangkok, Thailand.

Bangkok is a vibrant, bustling metropolis and the cultural and economic heart of Thailand. For a tourist, it offers a fascinating mix of ancient traditions and ultra-modern city life. It is often described as a city of contrasts, where serene, centuries-old monuments sit just down the street from towering skyscrapers and luxury high-rises. On arrival, you will be met and transferred to your hotel where you may enjoy an evening at leisure.

Overnight: Hotel Royal Bangkok @Chinatown or similar
Meals included: In-Flight

Day 2 Bangkok City Tour & Dinner Cruise

Begin with a full-day introduction to Bangkok's historic and cultural highlights.

Explore some of the city's most impressive temples and discover the contrast between ornate Buddhist architecture, lively riverside neighbourhoods and modern Bangkok.

Today's tour typically visits iconic landmarks such as Wat Phra Kaew (Temple of the Emerald Buddha) and Wat Pho (Temple of the Reclining Buddha), and explores the historic neighborhoods of Rattanakosin Island (Old Town) and Yaowarat (Chinatown) along with Pak Khlong Talat, the city's famous flower market, where the colourful displays and constant activity provide a very different view of local life. Exact sightseeing may vary depending on weather and traffic conditions.

This evening, enjoy a memorable dinner cruise along the Chao Phraya River. As Bangkok's skyline and illuminated temples pass by, settle in for dinner including both an international and Thai seafood buffet, select drinks and live entertainment while taking in the city from the water.

Overnight: Hotel Royal Bangkok @Chinatown or similar
Meals included: Breakfast; Dinner

Day 3 Bangkok - Day at Leisure

Enjoy a relaxed morning and a free day to explore Bangkok independently, or choose to join an optional excursion beyond the city.

Optional Activity: Floating Markets & Railway Market Day Tour

(Booked and paid on tour)

Depart for the coastal province of Samut Songkhram, where the tour begins at the Maeklong Railway Market (Talad Rom Hub), a vibrant local trading spot built directly over active train tracks. As the commuter train's warning horn sounds, visitors watch stallholders instantly pull back canvas awnings and slide baskets of fresh produce and seafood inches away from the passing carriages before seamlessly reopening moments later.

From there, the journey continues into neighbouring Ratchaburi province to board a motorised wooden long-tail boat through quiet residential canals lined with traditional stilt homes and coconut groves. The cruise opens into Damnoen Saduak, Thailand's best-known floating market, where local vendors in wooden paddle boats prepare steaming bowls of boat noodles, grill coconut snacks, and sell fresh tropical fruit directly along the waterways. With time to explore the boardwalks, bargain for handcrafted souvenirs, and sample local street food, this day tour offers an authentic look into historic Thai river and rail commerce. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Overnight: Hotel Royal Bangkok @Chinatown or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 Bangkok - Scenic Train Journey - Kanchanburi

Today, leave Bangkok behind and travel west by train towards Kanachanaburi (approximately a 2.5 to 3-hour train trip).

Kanchanaburi is a historic and naturally scenic province in western Thailand, best known for its poignant World War II history and stunning national parks. During the war, occupying Japanese forces used Allied prisoners of war and Asian labourers to construct the notorious "Death Railway" to Myanmar (Burma), at immense human cost. Today, Kanchanaburi serves as an important site for remembrance, while also attracting tourists to its lush jungles, waterfalls and caves along the Khwae Yai and Khwae Noi rivers.

Rather than simply using road transport, this train journey follows the historic Death Railway route, making the train ride itself an important part of today's experience. Watch the scenery change from Bangkok's urban edge to green countryside, rural communities and river landscapes as you travel by train. On arrival in Kanchanaburi, transfer to the hotel and settle in. The balance of the afternoon and evening is free to relax by the river or explore locally.

Overnight: The Bridge Residence Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 5 Kanchanaburi - Hellfire Pass & Sai Yok Noi Waterfalls

Today combines important history with the natural beauty of western Thailand.

Visit the Hellfire Pass Memorial and learn about the construction of the Thailand-Burma Railway during the Second World War. The memorial and walking trail provide a moving insight into the conditions endured by Allied prisoners of war and Asian labourers who worked on the railway.

Afterwards, visit Sai Yok Noi Waterfalls. The waterfall features a picturesque stream cascading over limestone tiers into a series of clear basins. Nestled within a lush, green environment with large shady trees, it provides a tranquil atmosphere that makes it a favourite destination for both locals and tourists looking to relax in nature. After the day's visits, return to Kanchanaburi and enjoy a relaxed evening at the hotel.

Overnight: The Bridge Residence Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch

Day 6 Kanchanaburi - Ayutthaya - Tuk-tuk Temple Tour

After breakfast, depart Kanchanaburi and travel east towards Ayutthaya. The journey takes you through rural central Thailand and provides a comfortable road connection between the two historic destinations.

Ayutthaya (formally Phra Nakhon Si Ayutthaya) is one of Thailand's most significant historical sites. Founded around 1350, it served as the second capital of the Siamese Kingdom and was a massive cosmopolitan hub of global diplomacy and commerce, often referred to as the "Venice of the East". Though the city was destroyed by the Burmese in 1767, its spectacular ruins remain today as a major tourist destination.

On arrival, check-in and enjoy a relaxed afternoon before setting out by tuk-tuk for an atmospheric introduction to Ayutthaya's temple ruins. As the old capital comes to life in the softer afternoon light, explore the historic streets and ancient monuments before returning to the hotel. Today's driving distance is approximately 180km.

Overnight: Kantary Hotel Ayutthaya or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 7 Ayutthaya - Sukhothai - Historical Park Tour

Travel north today by train, continuing the journey through Thailand's historic heartland.

The rail journey runs to Phitsanulok (approximately 3.5 hours), and then you will have a road transfer onward to Sukhothai (approximately 1 hour), giving you a varied and scenic travel day through the central and northern plains.

Sukhothai, which translates to the "Dawn of Happiness," was the first capital of Siam, founded in the 13th century. It is widely considered the birthplace of Thai culture, art, architecture and language. Unlike the later capital of Ayutthaya, which was known for its sheer monumental scale and defensive layout, Sukhothai's ruins are celebrated for their classic, elegant aesthetic, including iconic lotus-bud stupas and serene Buddha statues.

Today, the ancient city is a well-preserved UNESCO World Heritage site surrounded by a quiet, rural atmosphere. After checking in, head out for an afternoon visit to Sukhothai Historical Park. Explore the atmospheric ruins, ancient temples and some of the region's most impressive Buddha images, including the remarkable large seated figures for which Sukhothai is famous.

Overnight: Le Charme Sukhothai or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 8 Sukhothai - Chiang Mai - Street Food Night Tour

Today, continue north towards Chiang Mai, travelling first by road to Phitsanulok and then by train through northern Thailand.

The 6 to 7-hour railway journey offers a chance to sit back and watch rural landscapes, small towns and agricultural areas pass by as the scenery gradually becomes more mountainous.

Chiang Mai, affectionately known as the "Rose of the North," is the largest and most culturally significant city in northern Thailand. Founded in 1296 as the capital of the ancient Lanna Kingdom, it is celebrated for its deeply rooted traditions, slower pace of life and stunning mountainous surroundings. Unlike the flat plains of Ayutthaya and Sukhothai, Chiang Mai is nestled among lush green hills and features a historic, square moated "Old City" packed with hundreds of ornate Buddhist temples.

Today, Chiang Mai beautifully balances its ancient heritage with a thriving modern arts scene, bustling night markets, ethical elephant sanctuaries and world-class coffee culture. On arrival, transfer to your hotel for check-in, and then in the evening, head out to discover the city's street-food scene before exploring a lively night plaza, where you can browse local stalls, try regional dishes (at your own expense) and enjoy the relaxed atmosphere of Chiang Mai after dark.

The Itinerary

Overnight: Cross Vibe Chiang Mai Decem Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 9 Chiang Mai - Day at Leisure

Enjoy a leisure day in Chiang Mai or take part in an optional activity.

Optional Activity - Thai Cooking Class

(Booked and paid on tour)

Today is all about one of Thailand's great pleasures - food. Join a Thai cooking class and learn more about the herbs, spices and techniques that create the distinctive flavours of northern Thai cuisine. With guidance from your local hosts, prepare a selection of dishes before sitting down to enjoy the results together. The remainder of the day is free to relax or continue exploring Chiang Mai. You might wander around the Old Town, visit a temple, enjoy a massage or settle into one of the city's many cafes and restaurants. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Overnight: Cross Vibe Chiang Mai Decem Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 10 Chiang Mai Day at Leisure - Khantoke Dinner

Enjoy another leisure day in Chiang Mai or take part in an optional activity.

This evening, come together for a traditional Khantoke dinner, an opportunity to enjoy northern Thai cuisine while experiencing local music and dance. It is a relaxed and entertaining way to round off your time in Chiang Mai.

Optional Activity: Elephant Sanctuary

(Booked and paid on tour)

Today, visit an elephant sanctuary. This experience allows guests to observe rescued elephants in a natural and ethical environment. It includes walking alongside them at a respectful distance, learning about their rehabilitation and preparing nutritious meals for them (no riding). Return to your hotel in the afternoon. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Overnight: Cross Vibe Chiang Mai Decem Hotel or similar
Meals included: Breakfast; Dinner

Day 11 Chiang Mai - Krabi - Ao Nang

Today, transfer to Chiang Mai Airport for your flight south to Krabi.

Leaving the cooler northern hills behind, the landscape changes dramatically as you head to Thailand's Andaman coast, where limestone cliffs, tropical islands and beaches await.

Krabi is a stunning coastal province in southern Thailand, celebrated for its dramatic limestone karsts, crystal-clear waters and pristine white-sand beaches. It offers a slightly more laid-back, nature-focused atmosphere compared to other major tourist hubs, while still providing world-class island hopping, rock climbing and jungle exploration. It serves as the primary gateway to some of the most famous islands and marine parks in the region. On arrival in Krabi, transfer to Ao Nang and check-in to your hotel. The remainder of the day is free to relax, enjoy the beach and explore the lively waterfront at your own pace.

Overnight: GLOW Ao Nang Krabi or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

The Itinerary

Relax at the hotel or make the most of Krabi's spectacular coastline with an optional boat tour to Hong Island.

Optional Activity - Hong Island

(Book and pay on tour)

Today enjoy a speedboat trip exploring the highlights of Krabi's marine national park. Guests will discover the famous Hong Lagoon, a turquoise secret lagoon enclosed by towering limestone cliffs, visit Lading Island (Koh Lading) with its tranquil sheltered cove, and enjoy free time on Hong Island for swimming, snorkelling and relaxing on pristine white-sand beaches. Please see current pricing in Important Information.

Overnight: GLOW Ao Nang Krabi or similar
Meals included: Breakfast

Day 13 Krabi - Afternoon/Evening Sunset Dinner Cruise

Enjoy a relaxed morning and early afternoon before heading to the pier for a memorable coastal cruise. Set out onto the Andaman Sea and take in Krabi's distinctive limestone islands and cliffs from the water, with plenty of time to relax on deck and enjoy the scenery.

As the afternoon fades into evening, watch the sunset over the Andaman horizon before enjoying a dinner served on deck. The combination of warm evening light, calm sea views and dinner under the open sky provides a fitting highlight to your time on the coast.

Overnight: GLOW Ao Nang Krabi or similar
Meals included: Breakfast; Dinner

Day 14 Krabi - Khao Sok Lake

Leave the coast behind and travel inland towards Khao Sok and the spectacular Cheow Lan Lake. The road journey takes approximately 3 hours and crosses the southern Thai countryside before reaching Ratchaprapha Pier, where the experience changes from road travel to a traditional longtail boat journey across the lake (approx 45 min to 1 hour).

Khao Sok Lake, officially known as Cheow Lan Lake, is the breathtaking centerpiece of Khao Sok National Park in southern Thailand. Created in 1987 by the construction of a massive dam, the resulting reservoir flooded a sprawling valley, leaving behind towering limestone karsts that jut dramatically out of the deep emerald waters. Often compared to China's Guilin or Vietnam's Ha Long Bay, the lake is enveloped by one of the oldest evergreen rainforests in the world. It is famous for its serene floating bungalow resorts, mystical morning mist and incredible wildlife, including wild elephants, gibbons and hornbills. Cruise between towering limestone cliffs and rainforest-covered landscapes before arriving at your floating resort.

Settle into life on the lake and enjoy time to appreciate the peaceful surroundings. Today's stay is designed to be immersive and relaxing, with the natural environment taking centre stage.

Overnight: Khao Sok Floating Bungalow: The Laguna Chiewlarn or similar Meals included: Breakfast; Lunch; Dinner

The Itinerary

Day 15 Khao Sok Lake - Phuket

Wake to the quiet beauty of Cheow Lan Lake and enjoy your final morning surrounded by dramatic karst scenery.

After breakfast, board the longtail boat back towards Ratchaprapha Pier and continue by road towards Phuket (approximately 3 hours).

Phuket is Thailand's largest and most famous island, situated in the sparkling Andaman Sea. Often considered a premier international holiday destination, it offers an incredible mix of stunning white-sand beaches, high-end luxury resorts, rich Sino-Portuguese history and a legendary nightlife scene.

Arrive in Phuket and check-in to your resort. The afternoon and evening are free to relax after the journey and enjoy the island's renowned beaches, tropical scenery and vibrant coastal charm.

Chiang Mai

The first quarter in Chiang Mai begins with pleasant, cool, and dry weather before transitioning into intense heat. Temperatures typically range from about 15°C in the cool mornings to 34°C in the afternoons. While January and early February offer clear skies that are ideal for mountain trekking and temple visits, late February and March bring the annual burning season, which causes heavy smoke haze and elevated $Pm^2.5$ air pollution across the valley.

Bangkok

Bangkok experiences mostly dry and sunny conditions during the first quarter, with humidity steadily climbing as the months progress. Temperatures generally range from about 22°C to 35°C, with the early weeks of January feeling relatively mild and comfortable. By March, the heat becomes noticeably intense, making midday outdoor walking demanding. It remains a popular time for city exploration and boat trips along the river, provided travellers plan their outdoor sightseeing for the early mornings.

Krabi

Krabi enjoys its peak dry season during this quarter, characterised by abundant sunshine, gentle coastal breezes, and calm turquoise waters. Temperatures typically range from about 24°C to 34°C, with very little rainfall throughout the period. Sea conditions are optimal for island hopping, snorkelling, and rock climbing around Railay Beach. Because these months offer the most reliable beach weather of the year, it is the busiest tourist period, requiring advance arrangements for tours and lodging.

April - June

Chiang Mai

The second quarter begins with the hottest weather of the year before welcoming the arrival of the early rainy season. Temperatures frequently range between 23°C and 38°C, with April heatwaves occasionally pushing daytime highs even higher. The annual Songkran water festival in mid-April offers lively relief from the scorching conditions. By late May and June, frequent afternoon downpours begin to clear the dry-season smoke haze, reviving the lush greenery across the surrounding hills.

Bangkok

Bangkok is sweltering and humid throughout the second quarter, with April marking the peak heat of the year. Temperatures typically range from about 26°C to 37°C, and high humidity levels can make outdoor excursions exhausting. As June approaches, short but heavy afternoon thunderstorms become common, occasionally causing localised street flooding and heavy traffic. Visitors during this period often balance outdoor morning activities with indoor air-conditioned shopping and dining.

Krabi

The early part of the quarter remains hot and mostly dry, but May brings the onset of the southwest monsoon across the Andaman Coast. Temperatures generally range from about 25°C to 33°C. While sunny intervals are frequent, May and June see an increase in sudden squalls and rougher sea conditions. It marks a transition into the quieter shoulder season, offering lower accommodation rates, though travellers must remain flexible with boat excursions depending on sea conditions.

July - September

Chiang Mai

Chiang Mai experiences its wet season throughout the third quarter, with rainfall peaking in August and September. Temperatures typically range from about 23°C to 32°C, offering a cooler and fresher atmosphere than the preceding hot months. Rains usually arrive in brief, intense afternoon or evening bursts rather than continuous all-day downpours. The surrounding countryside and terraced rice paddies become vibrant emerald-green, making this an excellent, uncrowded period for visiting waterfalls and rural landscapes.

Bangkok

The third quarter represents Bangkok's wettest time of the year, culminating with peak precipitation in September. Temperatures generally range between 25°C and 33°C, accompanied by overcast skies and high humidity. Sudden torrential downpours are frequent in the late afternoons, often overwhelming urban drainage and slowing road transport to a crawl. Navigating the city via elevated Skytrain and underground rail systems is recommended, and flexible indoor backup plans are essential for travellers.

Important Information

Krabi

Krabi experiences its highest rainfall and strongest winds during the third quarter as monsoon systems dominate the Andaman Sea. Temperatures typically range from about 24°C to 31°C. Choppy seas and strong rip currents mean that several offshore marine parks close and boat trips are frequently cancelled for safety. While sunbathing and diving are limited, this period is popular with budget travelers seeking dramatic scenery, quiet beaches and visits to inland rainforests and hot springs.

October - December

Chiang Mai

The final quarter marks the return of Chiang Mai's most celebrated travel weather as monsoon rains clear away in October. Temperatures typically range from about 15°C to 31°C, with night temperatures in higher mountain areas occasionally dropping near 10°C. November brings dry, sunny days and cool evenings, coinciding with the Loy Krathong and Yi Peng lantern festivals. The crisp, clean air and pleasant climate make December one of the finest months for hiking and exploring northern Thailand.

Bangkok

Bangkok transitions out of its rainy season during October, entering its coolest and most comfortable period in November and December. Temperatures typically range from about 22°C to 32°C, accompanied by pleasant northeasterly breezes and significantly lower humidity. Rain is infrequent towards the end of the year, creating ideal conditions for exploring open-air night markets, rooftop venues and historic riverside districts without excessive heat.

Krabi

Krabi sees lingering post-monsoon showers in October, but skies and waters clear up rapidly by mid-November. Temperatures generally range from about 24°C to 32°C, with calm seas and sunny conditions returning in full force by December. Offshore boat tours, diving, and kayaking resume standard operations as water visibility reaches its prime. This quarter ushers in the high tourist season, offering premier coastal conditions for holiday travel.

Burning Season - February to April

Please note Northern Thailand and some areas of Central Thailand are impacted by forest fires and agricultural clearing from February to April, peaking in March which causes increased air pollution and decreased visibility over this period. If you suffer from respiratory issues, travel is not advised due to the increased air pollution. Please consult your health care professional if you have any concerns.
